Seattle Bubbling Over; Worlds Fair Opens Tomorrow

By JACK V. FOX

SEATTLE (UPI) — This lovely city bubbled with the most excitement since the 1897 Yukon gold rush today on the eve of a world fair expected to draw three times as many tourists as the nation's northwest usually sees in a year.

To the casual eye, it appeared a miracle would be needed to bring about the fair's opening on time at noon tomorrow.

Carpenters were still sawing and pounding. Cement mixers were turning. Painters were splashing; electricians tripping over their cords; scoop shovels scooping.

But so confident were the natives that all would be ready for a first day crowd anticipated at 90,000 that Mayor Gordon Clinton—although a teetotaler—decreed that the hour be marked as if it were New Year's Eve, with ringing of bells and blowing of horns and whistles.

Every world fair has one feature that is always remembered. Seattle does not have a Sally Rand although it does have a "backstage USA" where the customers are given the illusion they have stumbled into a dressing room where the showgirls are taking showers and changing costumes.

But the single impression visitors will take home is of the soaring Space Needle, a 600-foot steel spire that looks like an Eiffel Tower with a bright orange disc atop. There, in a restaurant which revolves completely once an hour, the champagne was already icing.

Just looking up at the space needle from below is going to be enough to make a good many housewives say, "Uh-uh, not for me." But engineers have seen to it that it can stand twice the seismic load required by the building code and half again as much wind as ever recorded in Seattle.

This fair may resemble the gold rush in more ways than one. It has minted its own gold-plated coins about the size of a silver dollar. They cost $1 apiece and can be kept as mementoes or spent as dollars — not only here but throughout Washington state.

The second biggest novelty in Seattle probably will be the monorail. The rubber-tired coaches, capable of transporting 10,000 persons an hour from downtown to the grounds, glides silently over the one and one-fifth mile overhead in 95 seconds.

Loveliest-appearing and probably the hit attraction among exhibits is the United States Science Pavilion, consisting of six permanent structures costing almost 10 million dollars. Its fountains and pools are surrounded by trees with

WELL, HELLO THERE, MAMA!

Two-year-old Keith Vitelli unconcernedly greets almost-weeping mother, Mrs. Jacqueline Yvonne Vitelli of 1391 Clinton Avenue, San Rafael, at the San Rafael police station. Keith, wearing nothing but pajama tops, went exploring while mama was making a hurried morning trip to the grocer today. He was picked up on Lincoln Avenue near Mission Avenue—five blocks from home—by James L. Parish of Santa Rosa, who took him to the police station. Capt. Joseph Brusatori checked neighborhood and reached the Vitelli home just as Mrs. Vitelli was returning with the groceries. He took her to the station. (Independent-Journal photo)

HE TALKED ANYWAY

Army Suspends Ex-Walker Aide

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maj. Archibald E. Roberts has been suspended by the Army while it investigates a speech he made without Pentagon clearance. The swift, stiff Pentagon action recalled that taken last year against his former boss, former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker.

Roberts, 46, got a standing ovation from the Daughters of the American Revolution yesterday for an off-the-cuff talk in which he charged some government officials have leftist leanings. He applied that label to G. Mennen Williams, former governor of Michigan who is now assistant secretary of state for African affairs, and to Mayor Samuel Yorty of Los Angeles.

MAJ. ARCH E. ROBERTS
Speech not cleared

Yorty issued a statement in Los Angeles saying the charge was ridiculous. He said it "serves mightily the Communist objective" by causing confusion which aids subversives.

WILLIAMS TRAVELING

Williams is traveling in Africa and was unavailable for comment.

Last night, Roberts got word from his commander at Ft. Lee, Va., Col. John B. Hines, that he "has been suspended from performance of military duty pending further investigation of statements made in a public speech in Washington."

Today the DAR asked a congressional investigation, but Sen. Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.), said he favored leaving the investigation to the Army.

NO ORDERS

Thurmond, who has been battling for months against what he called Pentagon muzzling of military officers, said he thought an Army investigation was appropriate if Roberts had in fact questioned the loyalty of Yorty and Williams.

Roberts said he had not been under orders to subm' his speech for Pentagon clearance. And he told a reporter "an investigation to me means that they will hear both sides. I

Two Safecracking Suspects Caught

Pair Nabbed Inside Marin City Store

By WAT TAKESHITA

Two safecrackers, who had hammered their way through a heavy steel safe, were caught in the act this morning inside Brice Brothers' Marin City Market by sheriff's deputies.

Deputy Sheriff Boyd Burnham fired one warning shot a few inches away from the crouching burglars and flushed the pair. Burnham and Officer Michael S. Berney of Sausalito tore their trousers as they scrambled on the hood of their patrol car to cover the burglars inside.

Jailed on suspicion of burglary and conspiracy were Phaterrell Grine, 23, of Building C-50, apartment 396, and Homer Wayne Briscoe, 22, of 69 Cole Drive, apartment 10, both of Marin City. Grine also goes by the names of Green and King.

SPOTS BREAK-IN

First officer to spot the break-in was Deputy James L. Current, who noticed a broken window to the rear of the market about 1:20 this morning. He called for re-inforcements.

Within a few minutes, the market area was crawling with officers, fresh from a police officers' training school at Santa Venetia. They had just completed a three-hour course on safecracking and burglary.

CALL FOR HELP

Current called for help and covered the rear of the store. Deputy Burnham and Officer Berney drove their patrol car against the wall of the safe room and clambered onto the hood to peer through the window.

"Don't move!" Burnham warned, then fired one shot directly in front of where the

OAS Chief Is Captured In Algeria

Salan, a 62-year-old army veteran who has seen service in virtually all corners of the world was sentenced to death in absentia for the putsch as was his colleague, former Gen. Edmond Jouhaud.

When reports spread that Salan was captured, heavy troop reinforcements were concentrated around Reghaia, an air base near Rocher Noir headquarters.

Salan already was aboard a plane bound for Paris when the announcement was made, the spokesman said.

A government official said Salan was taken when riot troops and police sealed off a small section in downtown Algiers and launched a search.

Capture of the 62-year-old former general who vowed to keep Algeria French came as the French government sharply stepped up action here against his secret army.

There were reports Salan had been captured early in today's search but that he refused to admit his identity and riot police officers who arrested him were not sure themselves it was Salan.

Unofficial reports leaked out that Salan had been taken, but it was not until several hours later that the Rocher Noir headquarters of the French-Moslem provisional executive disclosed the arrest.

Russ Walkout Threatened At Geneva

GENEVA (AP) — Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin threatened today to walk out of the 17-nation general disarmament conference if the United States conducts atmospheric nuclear weapons tests in the Pacific in the next week or so.

He made the comment to newsmen after a Good Friday session of the disarmament conference.

In the conference room itself Zorin said the American tests would bring about an extremely tense international atmosphere.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean made it clear the United States tests undoubtedly will be held because of what he called the unyielding Soviet attitude. Dean said the Soviet Union appears to have killed any chance for a quick agreement on an internationally enforced nuclear weapons test ban.

Both Dean and British Minister of State Joseph B. Godber refused a Russian call for an unpoliced moratorium on tests. The Russians remained adament against international inspection and control.

Boy On Lap Of Mother Drives Car

A 7-year-old boy drove a car for two miles this morning while seated on his mother's lap when she was unable to drive, finally crashing it against a utility pole in Mill Valley.

The mother, Mrs. Geraldine Bettencourt, 45, of Tennessee Valley Road, was treated at Marin General Hospital for an injured nose. Her son, Mike, was examined but found uninjured.

Police Officer Keith Cramer said two witnesses reported that Mike had driven the car from Tamalpais Junction to Alto, about two miles.

About 9 a.m., the boy piloted the car off Lomita Avenue into Shell Road and hit the pole.

A woman bystander, who comforted the boy, said Mike told her, "My mommie was drunk and I tried to steer the car."

The boy is a first grader at Our Lady of Mount Carmel School in Mill Valley.

"It's fabulous," said Officer Cramer. "He said he had never driven before." He said he did not think Mike was tall enough to reach the brake.

2 Road Proposals Stir Sleepy Hollow

Sleepy Hollow residents heard last night a proposal for a road over the hill from San Rafael which might greatly change the traffic pattern of their community and neighboring San Anselmo.

The plan, drawn up by engineer Carlos Gonzales for the Draper Companies, developers of the Northgate Shopping Center, was read by Harold D. Lang at a meeting of the Sleepy Hollow Home Owners Assn. Lang was appointed chairman of a committee to investigate it, with other committee members to be named by president John Gaylord.

Gonzales's plan proposes two alternate routes over the hill as extensions of Manuel Freitas Parkway.

Route A would connect with Butterfield Road via Fawn Drive in Sleepy Hollow. Route B would run along the ridge from an extension of Manuel Freitas Parkway to connect with the end of San Francisco Boulevard in San Anselmo. To do this, it would have to go through property the City of San Anselmo is in process of buying for a corporation yard and recreational development.

Gonzales estimated cost of Route A as $620,530. Marvin W. Brigham, county public works director, said today he considered this unrealistically low. About three miles of road is involved, he said.

Either route would be a four-

BUNNIES ARE VERY FUNNY THAT WAY

Easter bunny note:

The Ross Valley Nursery School borrowed a rabbit from the Louise A. Boyd Museum in San Rafael for the week preceding Easter.

It was a buck rabbit, the museum people assured the nursery school people.

The "buck" rabbit proceeded to give birth to nine baby bunnies, before the eyes of the delighted nursery school youngsters.

McCarthy Would Dump State Income Taxes

I-J Special Report

SAN JOSE—A candidate for lieutenant governor called last night for the gradual elimination of the state income tax.

Marin Sen. John F. McCarthy told a press conference a reduction of the state budget by 12 per cent would equal the amount of money received by the state in individual income taxes. This, he said, could be accomplished by cutting the budget as little as 2 per cent per year for six years.

"If I am elected lieutenant governor I will strive for such a program," McCarthy declared. He called the state income tax a "duplication tax."

Such a movement would require strong bi-partisan support, he noted.

"But this can be achieved. You recall that three years ago when I introduced a bill to eliminate sales tax on prescription drugs, the governor called it 'fiscal irresponsibility.' I obtained bi-partisan support for the idea. Last year the governor changed his mind and made it a part of his program. Now he's claiming credit for a tax cut," McCarthy declared.

"If we can get the same kind of support behind the income tax elimination, it can be done."

U-2 Pilot's Wife Treated For 'Barbiturate' Overdose

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The wife of U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers was admitted to Georgetown University Hospital in an unconscious condition today for treatment of what police said was an overdose of a barbiturate drug.

Dr. George Shriner, who was attending the 27-year-old Mrs. Powers, said she was in "very serious" condition when she was first admitted but has been "responding satisfactorily."

Shriner said Mrs. Powers was suffering from an "acute gastro intestinal upset." He said the cause of the upset had not been determined.

However, Washington Police Lt. Nelson Rickey said records at the suburban Alexandria, Va., hospital showed Mrs. Powers had swallowed about 28 nembutal pills. Nembutal is a synthetic drug.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Virginian Will Head DAR

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Daughters of the American Revolution have elected Mrs. Robert V. H. Duncan of Alexandria, Va., their new president-general.

Duncan

The 71st annual DAR convention's 2,000 delegates yesterday voted Mrs. Duncan a three-year term.

The delegates passed a group of resolutions, including declarations against membership in the United Nations and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

They also went on record opposed to the administration's alliance for progress program designed to aid Latin America and protested what they termed "socialistic farm proposals."

Former Diplomat Bliss Dies

Bliss

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Former diplomat Robert Woods Bliss, 87, died yesterday.

Bliss joined the foreign service in 1900 and rose to the post of ambassador to Argentina before retiring in 1933.

He returned to the State Department during World War II for a brief tour of duty as a liaison officer between the secretary of state and the Office of Strategic Services.

10,241 Arrested

TOKYO (UPI)—The national police agency conducted a one-day drive yesterday against traffic violations in Tokyo and eight prefectures and arrested 10,241 persons for speeding.

Russ-Cuba Talks

HAVANA (AP)—A delegation of Soviet trade experts opened talks yesterday with Cuban officials on terms of a previously signed technical aid program for the Castro regime.

The newspaper Revolucion said the talks will deal mainly with Cuba's purchase on credit of equipment for 21 industrial installations.

Against Testing

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UPI)—A total of 130 Yale University faculty members yesterday came out in opposition to resumption of nuclear testing by the United States in the atmosphere.

"It is time to show the world that we, at least, will stop playing Russian roulette with humanity," they said.

Lookout For Spies

LONDON (UPI) — Security agents were reported keeping watch at air and sea ports today while Britons argued over the motives behind the arrest warrants issued for Guy Burgess and Donald MacLean, the two former diplomats who defected to Russia 10 years ago.

Scotland Yard, in announcing the arrest warrants, said it had grounds for supposing the two defectors were either contemplating leaving Russia or had already left.

In a British Broadcasting commentary last night, commentator Louis Blon-Cooper suggested the sprprise action was made to insure that MacLean and Burgess would be extradited to Britain should they enter another western nation.

The warrants were intended, Blon-Cooper said, to make it clear that to grant entry to the pair would constitute an "unfriendly" act to Britain.

Low And High

NEW YORK (UPI)—The lowest temperature reported to the U.S. weather bureau this morning was 16 degrees at the Marquette County Airport, Michigan. The highest yesterday was 101 at Blythe, Calif.

Kennedy Resting

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy continued an easy holiday schedule here today with family plans for Good Friday observance a private matter.

Kennedy passed up a yacht trip yesterday aboard the Honey Fitz but members of his staff said he might take family and friends on a lunchtime cruise today.

The Kennedys, staying at the beach estate of C. Michael Paul —the same house they used over the Christmas holidays, thus far have had ideal weather for their Easter vacation.

HE'S BACK IN MOSCOW

Russia's Marshall Ivan S. Koniev no longer makes the scene in East Germany. He has been recalled as commander of Soviet forces in the Red-governed territory, and has been given a post in the Soviet Defense Ministry. Hitler Born 73 Years Ago—No Celebrations

FRANKFURT Germany (UPI) —West Germany today ignored the 73rd anniversary of the birth of Adolf Hitler, the Australian-born World War I corporal whose ambitions triggered the biggest war in history and brought death and ruin throughout Europe.

Hitler, whose "thousand year reich" crumpled in less than 13 years, shot himself to death in his underground stronghold in the flaming ruins of Berlin as Allied troops pushed into the capital of Nazi Germany on April 30, 1945. His body was burned.

To most older Germans, the reign of the "fuehrer" remains a bad memory. To the younger Germans, it is a dark period in Germany's history.

There was no public mention of the anniversary—a far cry from the idolatrous birthday celebrations during his heyday.

In the years since his death, a few diehard Nazi sympathizers occasionally have manifested their loyalty by smearing swastikas and anti-Jewish slogans on buildings.

Daubing of the crooked cross symbol of national socialism on a Cologne synagogue in February 1960 touched off a worldwide wave of similar desecrations.

But responsible Germans were quick to repudiate the actions by gangs of cranks and hoodlums.

Most Germans prefer today to talk about their new cars than to be reminded of the days when millions of Jews died in gas chambers and concentration camps.

Children are not taught much about Hitler's Germany in spite of repeated demands that schools should indoctrinate them against the evils of Nazism.

Irish Rebels Out

DUBLIN (UPI) — The government today released the last of the outlawed Irish Republican Army (IRA) prisoners held in Irish jails.

The move came just two months after the IRA called off its campaign of violence against British forces in the north of Ireland, which was in protest against the partition of Ireland.

The 29 prisoners were released from Mountjoy Prison in the city center.

Titov May Visit

MOSCOW (UPI)—A U.S. Embassy spokesman said today he believes Soviet spaceman Gherman Titov will leave for Washington April 30.

The spokesman said Titov has applied for a visa to visit the American capital from April 30 to May 7.

Titov's expected visit has not been announced thus far to the Soviet public. They were expected to interpret it—when they are told—as a move to improve relations with the United States.

It's Bad Friday In Algiers

ALGIERS (UPI)—Secret Army Organization (O A S) killers raked the streets of Algeria's cities with bullets and bombs today despite the solemnity of Good Friday.

Authorities prepared for a bloody Easter weekend as Moslems threatened bitter reprisals for the OAS attacks. In an effort to end the violence and head off the reprisals, French high commissioner Christian Fouchet announced that the new 40,000-man Moslem "local force" will be used in the heavily European cities to fight the OAS terrorists.

By noon, OAS gunmen had killed at least seven Moslems and wounded at least one in scattered attacks. OAS saboteurs also were blamed for blowing up a section of the railway line between Algiers and the government administrative headquarters at Rocher Noir, 30 miles to the East.

Fouchet made his announcement about use of the "local force" after the arrest of two major figures in the OAS leadership.

The "local force" announcement reflected a policy change long disputed between the French government and the Algerian Moslems.

The Moslems have sought such use of the force since well before the Franco-Algerian cease-fire was signed at Evian, France, March 18.

In the announcement earlier this week that the force was nearing readiness for use, the provisional government said it would be used mostly in the country and small towns, in direct contradiction to the wishes of the Moslems. The Moslems want firm action — preferably by the force's Moslem troops — against the OAS.

Fouchet's statement came while police announced the arrests of former French Foreign Legion Sgt. Miroslav (Marc) Radovitch, leader of an important OAS terrorist command in Oran, and of former Lt. Claude Dupont,a top Algiers terrorist.

Police said Dupont, assistant to Belgian-born former Foreign Legion paratroop Capt. Rogert Degueldre, arrested two weeks ago as leader of the Algiers OAS "Delta Commando," was taken quietly today as he walked down an Algiers street with his fiancee and another woman.

They said Radovitch, also called "Capt Marc and Capt. Delgato," was arrested April 18 in a bar in Sidi Bel Abbes, headquarters of the Foreign Legion.

JFK 'Blackjacked' Steel, GOP Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican congressional leaders have unloaded some of their sharpest criticism of President John F. Kennedy since he took office, claiming he used police state methods to "blackjack" steel companies into rescinding a price increase.

In a formal statement released yesterday, they charged Kennedy with ordering or supporting nine actions last week that "imperiled basic American rights, went far beyond the law, and were more characteristic of a police state than a free government."

These "unitive, heavy handed and frightening" actions amounted to "a display of naked political power never before seen in this nation," said the statement issued on behalf of Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, House GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana and other GOP leaders in Congress.

It drew a quick reply from the Senate's assistant Democratic leader, Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota. He said the GOP leaders had again shown "an inborn, uncanny ability to get on the wrong side of major issues."

Eight companies announced $6-a-ton price increases last week but later backed down in the face of strong opposition from the President, who said such increases were not in the public interest.

The Republican statement said "We condone nothing in the actions of the steel companies except their right to make an economic judgment without massive retaliation by the federal government.

"Temporarily President Kennedy may have won a political victory, but at the cost of doing violence to the fundamental precepts of a free society.

"This nation must realize that we have passed within the shadow of police state methods."

The party leaders said the main question is, should the President "use the enormous powers of the federal government to blackjack any segment of our free society into line with his personal judgment without regard to law?"

Marinwood Annexation Study Voted

A study of possible incorporation of Marinwood and Terra Linda, or their annexation to San Rafael or Novato was approved last night by a 3-to-1 vote of Marinwood Community Services District directors.

The study, to be made by William R. Zion, government planning consultant of Lafayette, was approved last month by the Terra Linda Community Services District. The $1,200 cost will be split by the two community service districts.

E. Mack Miller voted against approval of the study because he said Marinwood's needs should be considered separately from those of Terra Linda. Sami Haddad was absent.

A summer recreation program from June 25 to Aug. 3 was approved by the board, to be handled in cooperation with the Dixie School District. Games, arts and crafts will be supervised for elementary school children at the Mary E. Silveira School Monday through Friday from 1:30 to 5 p.m. Swimming parties and other activities for teenagers will be planned two days a week.

Directors agreed to ask the Marin County Board of Supervisors to appoint Glenn D. Tobias and William D. McGregor to the CSD board, and cancel a June election since the two men are unopposed. Tobias is an incumbent. McGregor, of 157 Deepstone Drive, Marinwood, would replace Miller, who did not petition for re-election.

May 17 was set by the board for opening of bids on the district's $356,000 bonds for a community park and firehouse.

Directors also agreed, at the request of the fire commission, to ask for a state study of the cost of a state retirement program for the district's two paid firemen.

Youngster Hit By Car —Rushed To Hospital

Little Dodie Garrison, about 3 or 4 years old, of 11 Greenwood Way, Kentfield, suffered leg injuries this noon when hit by a car near her home.

She was rushed to Marin General Hospital for treatment. The extent of injury was not immediately known.

Street Work Delayed

Improvements to Miller Avenue in Mill Valley at Camino Alto junction will be held up until May 14-15, city manager A. E. Almcrants said today, to await placing of new water lines by Marin Municipal Water District.

Father Indicted On Arson Charge

A San Anselmo father, whose 11-year-old daughter died in a fire which he set in his own home last month, will be prosecuted for arson but not for murder.

Marin County Grand Jury last night indicted McDonald Huffman, 35, for arson. After hearing evidence presented by Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety and Asst. Dist. Atty. Bruce Bales, the grand jurors decided not to bring a murder charge.

Huffman, a production worker at a San Rafael manufacturing plant, admitted to San Anselmo police that he set fire to his home at 10 Ivy Lane on March 24. He said he did so because he was angry with his wife.

His daughter Donita ran back into the burning house to rescue the family cat and died in the flames. Huffman was severely burned about the hands in an unsuccessful attempt to save her. He is being held in Marin County Jail in lieu of $1,575 bail.

Huffman will be arraigned Monday in Marin Superior Court on the felony arson indictment.

The grand jurors, headed by Foreman Irving D. Chapman, also indicted five San Quentin prisoners who escaped on April 2 and were caught the next day in Santa Venetia with the help of a barking dog.

The five are James Peter Spatola, 31, Santa Clara robber; Graham C. Roark, 27, Los Angeles burglar; Kenneth E. Adams, 31, Stanislaus County jail camp escapee; James DuBois, 29, Los Angeles robber, and John L. Rucker, 31, Fresno auto thief.

Bales disclosed that one of the escapees was overheard telling another inmate that their plan was to find a lone woman in a car, hit her over the head, and steal her car for the getaway.

Another San Quentin convict was indicted for assaulting a fellow inmate. Angel R. Nino, 24, Los Angeles robber, is accused of attacking Alex Lechuga with a knife on Feb. 27. Lechuga, a Riverside County narcotics violator, was wounded in the exercise yard of the prison's adjustment center.

Nino faces death or life in prison if convicted because he is serving a life term for first degree robbery.

All suspects will come up in Marin Superior Court Monday for arraignment.

Air Force Picks Eight Astronauts For Training

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Air Force today picked eight student astronauts who may serve as future military or civilian space pilots and technicians.

The eight, seven Air Force officers and a Navy man, were selected from a field of 55 highly qualified test pilots who volunteered for space duty at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif.

They are: Capt. Albert H. Crews Jr., Alexandria, La.; Capt. Charles C. Bock Jr., Seattle; Capt. William T. Twinting, Chicago; Capt. Robert W. Smith, Washington, D.C.; Maj. Donald M. Sorlie, Fargo, N.D.; Capt. Robert H. McIntosh, Baltimore, Md.; Maj. Byron F. Knolle, Houston, Tex., and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Lloyd N. Hoover, Wilbraham, Mass.

The eight will be given an advanced course in astronautics beginning in June at Edwards Air Force Base.

San Rafael Man Facing Charges Has Pneumonia

A San Rafael man facing two felony charges was taken to San Rafael General Hospital last night, critically ill from pneumonia.

LeRoy Grundhauser, 26, of 9 Ross Street was "much improved" today, hospital attendants reported. They said he was "very much run down."

The hospital said today Grundhauser appeared to suffer from some kind of pulmonary ailment and was "very much run down."

Grundhauser and his brother Richard, 23, were scheduled to be tried in Marin Superior Court May 8, 9 and 10 on charges of breaking into the Stinson Beach Park ranger station Feb. 22.

In a separate case LeRoy Grundhauser will face trial May 1 on a charge of possessing marijuana in Sausalito Feb. 24.

Recreation Group Postpones Session

The Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission last night again postponed its meeting because of lack of a quorum, director Bill Gordon announced.

It was the fifth consecutive commission meeting postponement, all for the same reason.

Chairman Albert E. Kogler has scheduled a make-up meeting for next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Larkspur-Corte Madera school.

CARMEL BOOTH CANDIDATE FOR SUPERVISOR

Mrs. Carmel Booth, long the firebrand of the San Anselmo City Council before her move in 1960 to Nice in Lake County, is a candidate for Lake County Board of Supervisors.

This week at a meeting of the North Shore Assn. at Lucerne, Mrs. Booth challenged the other two candidates to a public debate, porposed for May 29 at the Lucerne Clubhouse. They had not as yet responded today.

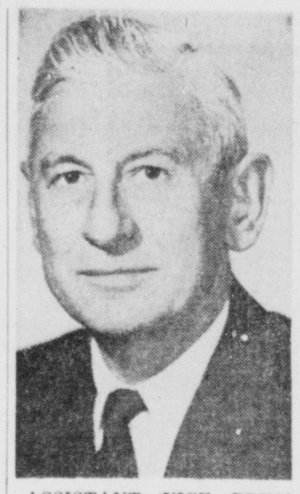
Director Of Recreation Urged

Hiring of two recreation directors at $450 a month each was recommended last night by the Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory commission.

The city of Novato has advertised for a permanent recreation director, but the position probably will not be filled until July 1.

The commission proposed hiring an interim director meanwhile, plus a full-time director for the summer teenage program. The commission recommended that $3,500 be allocated to this program.

Hamilton Air Force Base authorities have agreed to let the recreation commission use the pool at Hamilton for swimming lessons.



ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT—L. W. Thomas May, 29 Platt Avenue, Sausalito, has been promoted in the consumer loan division at Wells Fargo Bank's headquarters in San Francisco. He has specialized in loans since joining the staff in 1946.

Variance Granted In Corte Madera

Dr. M. W. Pieri of 35 Rancheria Road, Kentfield, was granted a variance by the Corte Madera Board of Adjustments Wednesday night to classify two adjacent 4,800 foot lots at the southeast corner of Tamalpais Drive and Eastmen Avenue as building sites.

Town ordinance sets minimum lot size at 7,500 square feet, but the board felt the smaller lots would conform with smaller lots already in the neighborhood.

The board also granted a variance to Victor N. Rossoff of 1 Spindrift Passage, Corte Madera, to build a 16-by-20 foot boat house in his back yard.

Third Operator Hired At Sewage Plant

The San Rafael Sanitation District yesterday hired Robert D. Wilson of Mill Valley as third operator of the east San Rafael sewage plant.

Wilson, 42, will receive $450 a month. He lives at 15 Presidio Avenue, Mill Valley.

EX-POLICE CHIEF INHERITS HOUSE

Being a good friend to the late Hobart Handy of Mill Valley has paid an extra dividend to James Patrick McGowan, former Mill Valley police chief.

McGowan has been notified that he, as only beneficiary in Handy's will, will receive Handy's house at 15 Oxford Avenue plus some stocks.

Handy, who was controller of the Palace Hotel in San Francisco for 41 years, died last June. His wife had died in 1958. Neither had any relatives, McGowan said.

When Handy became ill in 1960 after his wife's death, McGowan and his wife, Mabel, looked after him. "We did his cooking, gardening, cleaned his house. He couldn't do it for himself," said the former police chief.

BIG BURN STARTS IN MARIN CITY

Marin County firemen put the torch to a dozen World War II "temporary" duplexes in Marin City today, with 16 more to be burned on the next day when wind conditions are right. Five firemen under Capt. Frank Machado handled today's burning. The duplexes are being razed to clear the way for Marin City redevelopment. After waiting two months for approval from the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District, which sent balloons aloft to test the wind and never found it satisfactory, County Fire Chief Charles A. Reilley Tuesday got county supervisors' permission to burn the duplexes at his own discretion. (Independent-Journal photo) two burglars were crouched against the wall.

CAUGHT

"Don't shoot again, man! Don't shoot!" came a voice from inside.

"All of you get up against the wall with your hands up," Burnham ordered. The two arose from the floor and stood against the opposite wall with hands in the air.

When more reinforcements arrived, Burnham and Current climbed in through the window and handcuffed the two. The burglars were not armed.

Reinforcements included Sgt. Edward Levine, Inspector Guido Battaglia, Deputies Arthur V. Menjou and George Johnsen, and Identification Technician Edward Klementovich of the sheriff's office; Officer Charles Newman of Corte Madera; Officers Berney, Robert Ward, and Theodore Zink of Sausalito, and four officers of the California Highway Patrol.

Deputy Klementovich reported that the safecrackers had used a lug wrench, meat hook, hammers, and several steel knife sharpeners to whack away at the time-clock-operated safe. The meat hook was bent out of shape, and the knife sharpeners had snapped. The thieves had just about succeeded in getting into the safe when stopped, he said.

A 1957 convertible, used by the burglars, was found behind Hayden's Department Store a short distance away.

Ross Woman Back From Geneva Talks

Mrs. Robert Kingsley of Ross met three times with the United States envoy to the Geneva disarmament conference and he thanked her for anything she and other Women for Peace could do to ease U.S.-Russian tensions, she said today on her return home.

Special envoys Arthur H. Dean of the U.S. and Valarian A. Zorin of the Soviet Union expressed desire to comply with the women's wishes for total, universal disarmament, she reported.

Mrs. Kingsley and about 50 other members of Women for Peace from the United States visited delegations from the 17 nations to the conference. The American women were received by Dean and Zorin on consecutive days.

"We spent more than an hour with each of them and found them courteous and unchanging," she said. "We were joined the following day by women from France, Britain, Sweden, Russia, West Germany, Norway, Switzerland, Canada and Austria.

"We came together to the Palais des Nations to present to Mr. Dean and Mr. Zorin, the disarmament conference co-chairman, a statement urging 'no more testing of nuclear weapons' and 'continuation of negotiations until agreement is reached on total and universal disarmament.'"

She said the women handed the conferees "bundles of petitions with 50,000 signatures from the United States which called 'for a nuclear test ban treaty and general disarmament now.'"

She quoted Zorin as replying, "The desire of the Soviet Union is to strengthen peace and secure general and complete disarmament," Dean said, "We will continue to work together to bring about that which you desire."

She said Dean later told her, "Anything you can do at home to ease the tensions will make my job easier here."

She said he was "pleased and grateful to hear from people back home" when she gave him messages and greetings from the Marin County Board of Supervisors and other Marin groups.

The Declaration of Independence is kept in a fireproof, shockproof and bombproof steel-and-concrete vault at night.

Former Hub Purity Store Is Purchased

The former Purity Stores building at 127 Tunstead Avenue, San Anselmo, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. William J. Minnes of Kentfield.

Minnes, owner of Jack's Drug Store in San Anselmo, said he has no immediate plans for the building's use.

The property was purchased last year by the Northern California Publishing Co., San Anselmo, when Sheldon F. Sackett bought the controlling interest in the firm. The building was intended as a printing plant and office for the firm's three newspapers, the Ross Valley Times, Larkspur-Corte Madera Times, and Tiburon Peninsula Pelican.

At that time Sackett said equipment capable of turning out a daily newspaper "with colors and whatever supplementary features the public desires" would be installed.

Rogers Esteves, president of the company, said this week the building "was found to be unsuitable for the firm's purposes at this time."

hope that we will have the truth. I've made my position clear."

He added "it has been said that Sen. Stennis' investigation of military muzzling is one of the last surviving freedom forums in America. I hope to prove it."

Sen. John Stennis (D-Miss.) is chairman of the Armed Services subcommittee which is investigating charges that the Pentagon and the State Department have silenced outspoken anti-Communist military men. Walker appeared before the Stennis group earlier this month and fired a broadside of charges against several government officials.

Roberts delivered his talk to the DAR after the text of his originally planned address was denied clearance by the Pentagon. It was to have dealt with the "pro-blu" troop information program which Roberts says he drafted for General Walker.

Walker was relieved of his command and admonished by the Army on grounds he tried to influence the votes of his men in the 1960 congressional election.

Roberts, who was Walker's public information officer, was relieved of his overseas assignment and made a supply officer at Ft. Lee. He's a native of Denver and a 23-year Army veteran.

Roberts told the DAR annual meeting "we are at war today and we are losing."

He said the military has no business in politics—but it becomes everybody's business when the mayor of a big city has leftwing leanings. Then he named Yorty.

He said Yorty once was described to the House Committee on Un-American activities as one member of a "Communist faction in the California legislature."

Of Williams, Roberts said:

"And it is the responsibility of a great state is of such leftist leanings that his fiscal policies brought that state to the edge of bankruptcy."

Roberts said "We are not concerned with civilian control unless the channel of that control ends in the office of a Soviet official." He said a Soviet, Gregory Petrovich Arkadev, U.N. undersecretary for political and security affairs, gets information on all U.N. activities and on all U.S. plans for self defense.

When the Pentagon turned down his speech, Roberts said, "I was in the middle. The DAR had me on the program and at the last minute, four days before the speech was to be given, the Army said no. I couldn't appear." Roberts said he couldn't have submitted the new talk for clearance because he didn't have time to prepare a text.

San Jose Council Orders Manager To Explain Thefts

SAN JOSE (AP)—The San Jose City Council last night ordered City Manager A. T. Hamann to return immediately from his honeymoon in Japan to explain why he had not briefed them on a grand theft investigation involving the city treasurer.

The treasurer, Robert D. Callison, was arrested yesterday on charges involving the theft of more than $80,000 from parking meter collections. Officers said Callison admitted taking the money over the past 10 years.

Councilman George Siegfried called for Hamann's suspension because he had not told the council of the investigation. Other councilmen said they were concerned that the alleged thefts went on so long.

ROAD

lane road with 44-foot wide paving, according to Gonzales's plans.

No. 1 question is: who would pay for the road?

Much of the Freitas Parkway extension within the City of San Rafael is already on subdivision maps, to be built by developers. The over-the-hill connection, however, passes through undeveloped land.

Supervisor Fusselman has told questioners from Sleepy Hollow that the county has a policy against building such roads, and the projected connection would have to be built by an assessment district.

Sleepy Hollow residents at the meeting last night expressed opposition to sharing in an assessment district. They also questioned bringing a four-lane road to connect with two-lane Fawn Drive and Butterfield Road.

The road is sought, it was learned, to provide access from Ross Valley to a proposed regional shopping center on the Draper Companies' property adjoining the Northgate Center.

Shell Modifies 'Deal' Statement

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Joseph C. Shell, who opposes Richard M. Nixon for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, said yesterday several ranking party figures informed him "in no uncertain terms" he could unseat Gov. Edmund G. Brown in November easier than Nixon could.

However, Shell modified statements atrributed to him previously — and confirmed by him earlier yesterday — that he had been asked if he would accept a high post in the Nixon administration should the former vice president beat him in the primary and Brown in the general election.

Instead, Shell said he was asked only if he would like a position in the Nixon administration.

Shell said several national party leaders with whom he talked at no time made "an offer of any sort" for him to drop out of the primary. He stressed that these GOP figures were not acting as emissaries of Nixon.

A Nixon spokesman said the former vice president would not comment on Shell's statements.

Shell was quoted in one newspaper report as saying a financial agent of the Republican National Committee asked him if he would accept a post in Nixon's administration if he did "what they asked and Nixon won."

Shell confirmed the accuracy of the dispatch earlier yesterday, but said yesterday afternoon he had meant that he was asked only if he would like a position in the Nixon administration.

Another newspaper account said Shell claimed a secret deal was offered him. A Shell aide, Jack Germain, at the time confirmed the report, but Shell subsequently said he at no time was offered any deal. Germain later indicated this was also a misunderstanding.

Chambers Plan Discussion On Boat Facilities

A long-range plan to improve Marin County's boating facilities will be discussed by representatives from chambers of commerce throughout the county next Thursday at 8 8 p.m. in the San Francisco Yacht Club, Belvedere.

"This is an exploratory meeting to develop a coordinated program for improving Marin's marinas," said V. M. Moir, manager of the North Coast District of the California State Chamber of Commerce.

"With such a program the entire county can help any part with dredging, parking or launching problems."

Moir and Robert W. F. Severin, San Rafael architect, have worked more than a month developing a county-wide program to present at the gathering, which will include representatives from all businesses connected with boating.

SHELDON BACHUS
San Francisco State

Marinite Is Elected Student Veep

Sheldon Bachus, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bachus of 103 K Street, San Rafael, has been elected student body vice president of San Francisco State College.

Bachus is a junior majoring in public administration. A former music major, he now plans to study law.

He was elected vice president over one other candidate, Jay Folberg, an economics major from St. Louis, Mo., was elected president.

A native of San Rafael, Bachus was graduated in 1959 from San Rafael High School, where he won several music scholarships. He is principal trombonist with the Marin Symphony and past master of Marin chapter of Order of De Molay.

At San Francisco State, he is a member of Sigma Alpha Eta honor society and a former residence hall president. He was also a student assembly representative and director of associated student activities. He was on the dean's honor roll for the fall semester.

Wind Flips Seaplane On Richardson Bay

A seaplane from the Commodore Air Service in Sausalito was flipped over by the wind in Richardson Bay yesterday afternoon. The pilot, Tex Harding, was unhurt.

He was picked up by Sidney Seid, head of the air service in another seaplane. The plane was towed back to Sausalito by a tug boat.

State Scholarships Going To 13 Students

Thirteen Marin winners of California state scholarships were announced today by the State Scholarship Commission.

The 13 include two students each at Redwood, Sir Francis Drake, Tamalpais, Novato and Marin Catholic high schools, one each at San Rafael High School and College of Marin, and one San Rafael student attending Occidental College.

They are among about 1,500 scholars selected, statewide, for the awards, which involve financial assistance toward attendance at the college or university of the student's choice to a maximum of $900.

Marin winners are:

Karl M. Garlid of 649 Meadowsweet Drive, Corte Madera, student at Redwood High School; Janet A. Berry of 97 Spruce Road, Fairfax, College of Marin; Thomas J. O'Connell of 44 San Gabriel Drive, Fairfax, Marin Catholic High School; Deborah L. Rossman of 2 Meadow Way, Fairfax, Sir Francis Drake High School;

Nora J. Nininger of 24 Liberty Street, Larkspur, Redwood High School; Peter D. Hindley of 48 Carmelita Avenue, Mill Valley, Tamalpais High School; John A. Meacham of 145 Circle Avenue, Mill Valley, Tamalpais High School; Susan R. Obee of 651 Louise Avenue, Novato, Novato High School; John A. Soderblom of 997 Simmons Lane, Novato, Novato High School;

Michael A. Ungersma of 36 Vineyard Avenue, San Anselmo, Sir Francis Drake High School; William A. Drummong of 38 Corrillo Drive, San Rafael, San Rafael High School; Joan M. Hamstra of 115 San Rafael Avenue, San Rafael, Occidental College; James Ringrose of 732 San Pedro Road, San Rafael, Marin Catholic High School.

More Commercial Zoning Eyed In San Geronimo

Members of the San Geronimo Valley Master Plan Committee have indicated proposed commercial zoning in the area should be increased if possible.

The committee began its study of commercial zoning this week, said B. D. Dobbs, county planning director. The group met Tuesday instead of Thursday as regularly scheduled.

As proposed in the master plan adopted last year, about three acres in Forest Knolls and one acre in Lagunitas would be zoned for commercial use. Dobbs said some committee members said the zoning was limited.

The committee will continue its study May 17 at 8 p.m. at the Woodacre Improvement Club.

Electric Power Out In San Anselmo

Electric power was out in downtown San Anselmo yesterday for 20 minutes after high winds blew down a tree limb which struck service lines at Hazel and San Anselmo avenues.

San Anselmo firemen said the break was reported at 1:41 p.m. and service was restored at 2:01 p.m. by Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

Girls Complain Of Sausalito Tennis 'Hogs'

Judy Smith, 15, and Penny Sievers, 14, complained to the Sausalito Recreation Commission last night of a "court hog problem" on tennis courts at South View Park.

"This is unfair to teenagers" they said.

The girls reported that youngsters have been "kicked off" the courts by adults, taking advantage of the rule which states adults have priority to the court after 5 p.m. on week days and all day on weekends and holidays.

Chairman John R. Minton said this is not the intention of the rule. He said, if youngsters are playing and adults arrive, adults must wait their turn.

"Adults have no right to kick youngsters off the courts at any time," he said. He was directed by the commission to restudy the rule with an eye toward its being changed or reworded.

The commission appointed a three-man budget committee consisting of Willard A. Hall, chairman, commissioners Alfred M. Arenz and O'Hara Chapin.

A meeting with city council and planning commission members has been requested, Minton said, to discuss the recreation commission's proposal for recreational facilities in the Napa-Litho Street area.

Redevelopment Agency To Open Bids Monday

Bids will be opened Monday at 1:30 p.m. by the Marin County Redevelopment Agency for site improvements for unit four of the redevelopment in Marin City.

Improvements include streets, drainage, curbs and gutters for an area to house single family residences, apartments and the commercial area, according to Bert Klahn, executive director.

In order to build the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D.C., a swamp beside the Potomac had to be reclaimed and filled.

DINING OUT AND INNS

Marin Restaurants Featuring Some Special Meals For Easter

More than any other time of the year Easter is a day for "coming out." For breakfast, for lunch or for dinner. Most Marin restaurants will feature one or the others—or all three.

We haven't made a complete roundup of all the possibilities—but here are a few picked up in a spot check.

LE CHALET, Santa Venetia. This tiny place on San Pedro Road is going the Easter dinner route from 1 to 10 p.m. No lunches that day.

Its usual fare of beef Bourguignon and chicken Basque style is being augmented this Sunday by leg of spring lamb, coq au vin and ritz de veaux financiere (sweet breads with French sauce). The latter two will probably remain on the menu through the weeks to follow.

It's a sparkling little family place, in the process of building up patronage with home-style French-Basque food, moderate prices and friendly atmosphere. So far it's done well, with sizable gatherings on the weekends.

If it seems to be off the beaten path, this is of some advantage—though San Pedro Road is well traveled and will be more so after the opening of the new Civic Center later in the year.

We've visited there and can testify to the excellence of its beef Bourguignon and wine list. Should become increasingly popular.

DEER PARK VILLA, Fairfax. For the past several weeks in the process of remodeling. Should be close to completion by Sunday, if not entirely so. Here, too, a special Easter dinner will be featured, commencing at 3 p.m.

You'll find the whole place much more conveniently arranged, from the changed front entrance to the dining, lounge and rest rooms. The kitchen has been closed off and an increased staff is on hand to service all needs.

RESERVATIONS for Easter morning brunch at Blue Rock Inn, Larkspur, are traditional. It starts from 10 a.m. This has been going on many years and invariably draws a crowd.

FRANCHINI'S RESTAURANTS—both the Chateau and West End Villa make a big thing of Easter dinner. Special feature is the Easter brunch at the Chateau.

Take note of the current art display of Alfred Owles of Santa Venetia whose paintings are appreciated by everyone.

EGG HUNTING, Easter bunnies and pony rides for the youngsters are features of Sabella's Sunday breakfast. This is its fourth year. Service starts now at 9:30 a.m. so more people can be accommodated. Dinner from 1 p.m.

WE UNDERSTAND that Bob's of Marin, Corte Madera, will open its dining room for Easter dinners. It's usually closed, with just the coffee shop open.

EL PASEO, Mill Valley. Easter dinner as usual from 3 p.m. Better phone first. This is one of its active days.

DON CASSELDINE'S cooking talents are being expressed at Henry's Ol' Place, San Anselmo via a special brunch from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Fizzes to go with it. Easter dinner served from 5:30 to 10 p.m.

NOT OPEN. Holding to its custom of closing on holidays, San Rafael Joe's will not be open. And from now through the summer this restaurant will be closed Sundays.

HERE'S ONE—out of county. If you are of a mind to travel north this Sunday you might try the Cotati Inn, managed by George and Joannie Lautz, a husband and wife team. Dining room open from 1 to 9 p.m. for Easter dinner; dancing thereafter to 1 a.m. Menu runs principally to roast prime ribs and all kinds of steaks—very delicious.

Cotati Inn is something of a music center, due no doubt to George's own interest in the subject. He has a Master's degree in composition and plays expertly on several instruments.

EASTER BREAKFAST is the big feature at Eugene's, San Rafael — since 1947. Weather permitting you'll be able to have it in the Peacock Patio recently opened for the spring and summer.

AND THERE ARE many more—too many to list them all here. But if you check your favorite spot it's probably Easter specializing.

NOTHING TO DO particularly with Easter, but here are a couple of tips for West Marin.

We hear the bratwurst and sauerkraut at Lagunitas Gardens operated by Eddie Smith is a rare treat. Cooking is done by Eddie's wife Cassie. Closed Tuesdays.

Steaks and lobster are recommended at Bill Marshall's Silver Dollar in Point Reyes Station.

GOOD PLACE FOR EASTER BRUNCH—The Alta Mira Hotel attracts many to its Tree Top Terrace where the view of San Francisco Bay has been described as having a Mediterranean-like quality. Background subjects from this angle are the tip of Belvedere and Angel Island.

New Place To Eat Out

A new restaurant, the Villa Lucchesi, is expected to open this weekend on Sir Francis Drake Highway, San Geronimo. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lucchesi, 12 Sylvan Way, Woodacre, are owners.

Lucchesi said he was a partner in the New College Hill Market in San Francisco for 10 years.

The restaurant property formerly known as the Oak Tree Inn which also includes a bar and five motel cabins was leased from Al Rossi of San Francisco. Lucchessi said he has purchased the liquor license and installed new equipment. Mrs. Lucchesi will do the cooking.

The restaurant will be open for dinners Tuesdays through Saturdays from 4 to 10 p.m. and on Sundays from 2 p.m. It will be closed on Mondays.

YOUR WINE CORNER

Don't Overlook Fiery Mexican Drink Tequilla

Tequila comes from the maguey plant. Not the same one from which the Mexican pulque is made—at least not the better grades of tequila—but a scrubbier variety that's not at all impressive until you taste the difference in the distillation.

Gold tequila gets it color from aging in oak vats. A well aged product will remind you of good brandy—perhaps a little more fiery. Mexicans have a ritual of using it with lemon (or lime) and salt, but it fits in with tomato and fruit juices. Or order it as a martini on the rocks (tequila with a dash of Scotch over ice).

Mexican distillers were disappointed a few years ago when we took up the vodka rage and bypassed their national drink. But too many Americans had been disappointed by inferior grades. Recently it's made more headway here now that top qualities are imported. They come from Tequila in the State of Jalisco.

THIS WEEK'S PRONOUNCER: Amontillado (ah-mon-tee-ya'-do). A Spanish sherry. Very dry, gold-colored and full-bodied. An appetizer wine.

Angelica (an-jell'-ee-cah). About the sweetest dessert wine—almost a cordial. Chould be chilled. Said to be named after the city of Los Angeles.

Gringnolino (green-yo-leen'-oh) A red wine from the grape of the same name which originated in the Piedmont section of Italy. In the U. S. the wine is dry, medium-bodied and orange-red. Its color has caused some enthusiasts to call it the original Rose.

Moselle (mo-zell'). Thoroughly dry and tart and from the family of wines along the border between France and Germany. In the U. S. it's made from Taminer, Riesling and/or Folle Blanche grapes. Fine for seafoods. Straw-colored. Chill it.

ADVICE FROM A CENTENARIAN: Said Nicholo Leveroni of Providence, R. I., a singer, innkeeper and sportsman, on becoming 100 years old last March 4:

"Don't drink water. Drink good wine. A glass or two with a meal—I don't mean take a bath in it."

Maybe Father Needs Glasses

DES MOINES (AP) — A bat got into the children's bedroom at the home of interior decorator Philip Lane.

Lane thought he spotted the creature on the floor. He dropped a bath towel over it and jumped up and down as hard as he could. Then he found he'd kicked the stuffing out of one of his youngster's stuffed toys.

He called a professional exterminator to deal with the bat.

KOBSEFF GETS AWARD

State representative Jack W. Major of the National Foundation of the March of Dimes presented a certificate of appreciation to Nick Kobseff of Rancho Nicasio for his promotional activities in raising contributions.

Last Minute Tax Payments Very Heavy

Marin County's last minute tax payments this year were the "heaviest ever," County Tax Collector-Treasurer M. F. Donohue reported today.

After working two weekends to clear up the backlog of mail, Donohue came up with these figures:

A total of $20,978,402.09 in taxes was collected for 1961-62, out of an original bill of $21,811,256.30. Not collected by the April 10 deadline was $827,711.84, which means a delinquency of 3.82 per cent. The delinquency percentage is higher than last year's 3.52.

On the last day, Donohue and his staff received 217 telephone calls from citizens who wanted to know the amount of their taxes so that they could mail their checks by midnight.

Some thought that the county tax payment deadline was the same as the federal income tax deadline. These will be returned for 6 per cent penalty assessments.

A WEEK OF GOOD READING

PROFILE OF THE WEEK—Artur Argiewicz is a man who has devoted his life to music. And at age 80 he is still active in the field, teaching violin in his Ross home. He is a man who has known intimately some of the greatest figures in the world of music. The immortal Fritz Kreisler was his mentor and close friend. As a child, he played the violin for the composer Brahms. Josef Joachim, Eugene Ysaye, Leopold Stowkowski are only a few of the many other greats he has known. In tomorrow's edition of your Independent-Journal Marin Magazine, I-J reporter and music writer Maybelle Speckmann writes more about musician Argiewicz. You will find him a fascinating personality.

ONE OF A SERIES — Each week an Independent-Journal staff writer explores the character, achievements and human side of one of Marin's outstanding personalities — some of whom are all too little known by their neighbors.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

They Feared Greatly Saying, Truly This Was Son Of God

Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers. And they stripped him and put on him a scarlet robe.

And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

And they spit upon him, and took the reed and smote him on the head. And after they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own rainment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

And as they came out, they found a man of cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, they gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vestiture did they cast lots.

And sitting down they watched him there; and set up over his head his accusation written, This Is Jesus The King Of The Jews.

Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand and another on the left. And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads and saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and the elders, said, He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. He trusted in God; let Him deliver him now, if He will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

The theves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

Now from the sixth hours there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias.

And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed and gave him to drink.

The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom: and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent: and the graves were opened: and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, and came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city and appeared unto many.

Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. (Matthew 27: 26-54)

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

TODAY IS GOOD FRIDAY

Good Friday is a day of great significance for those who would play any constructive role in changing the world for the better.

It should be a reminder that our every prayer, word and deed should proceed out of love for all men without exception.

The words of the dying Christ for the men who crucified Him reveal His tender mercy:

"Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." (Luke 23:34)

Christ did not promise an easy time for His faithful followers. In fact, He promised trouble, misunderstanding, persecution and even death to those who would dare to replace hatred with love, error with truth, and depravity with decency.

He could hardly have been more candid in saying to those who shrink from the inconvenience and suffering involved in standing up for His truth:

"He who does not take up his cross and follow Me, is not worthy of Me." (Matthew 10:38)

But then the Lord added the hope-filled promise:

"He who loses his life for My sake, will find it." (Matthew 10:39)

Grant, O Crucified Savior, that I may show my love for You and all men, by a readiness to suffer.

Actress Kim Novak Tells Why She Remains A Bachelor Girl

NEW YORK (AP) — Hollywood's most eligible bachelor girl says her state of single bliss has only one big problem.

It's the people who keep asking me why I haven't married," said Kim Novak, the world's most lovely lavender blonde.

"They accept singleness in a man but in the case of a woman look for some strange reason.

"In my case it's quite simple. I haven't married — by choice.

"I've met a lot of men in my life, and I expect to meet a lot more, but I haven't met an overwhelming one."

She isn't presently in the mood to be overwhelmed by anything or anybody. In the wake of a most meteoric rise to fame, she is still engaged in that struggle that comes to all who are new to renown —the struggle to retain one's own identity as a human being.

Just a few years ago she was an obscure model. Today she's a top star, has her own film company, two homes, and presumably enough in the bank to tide her over a long lifetime of rainy days.

Such being the situation, she is in a good position to fight against being destroyed by the whipsaw strains of success. She doesn't want to be possessed or dominated by others.

That is why she vigorously resents pressures on her to marry.

"Above all, I prize being an individual," she remarked. "People are always trying to change you.

"Being single has certain advantages. Everything is simpler and less complicated.

"THE THINGS I like most in life—painting and writing —are the kind of things you don't do with someone looking over your shoulder.

"I'm far happier than if I were married to the wrong person—or even a half-way wrong person."

SHE BELIEVES happiness in marriage is relatively rare because marital partners too often try to change each other.

"Stupid marriages — and the frustrations resulting from them—have much to do with juvenile crime, war—all the restlessness in the world."

So she intends to remain single until that overwhelming man—with all his imperfections — comes along to bring her happiness.

Visitors Can Slim As They Tidy Up

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Warm weather inevitably turns many people's conversation to the subject of diet with a view to slimming. May I suggest one simple way to reduce which costs nothing, requires no hardship and is highly beneficial to the community as a whole.

If each one of the "50,000 barbarians" who invade parks and beaches, picked up one single piece of litter, be it broken glass, food container or newspaper, and carried it to the nearest refuse container, the simple bending and walking would work wonders on the appearance of the "barbarian" and the beach or park.

If there is no handy trash container perhaps the paper sack used to transport the food could be put to good purpose carrying back the debris instead of being added to the general litter.

An ardent conservationist myself, I can well sympathize with the other camp in this one instance. If people do not care enough about the existing parks and beaches, how are they going to enjoy more of them or appreciate the viewpoint of those of us who deplore the disgusting and unhealthy vista of beer cans, cartons and worse that greets us when we wish to enjoy our own Sausalito after the weekend invasion!

May I hope our visitors will join us in our "slim as you tidy up" campaign? A little co-operation will do much to silence the cries of "tourist go home!"

Minister Chides Votes For Sally

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

In the recent local elections a candidate who has personally publicized the immoral life that she led a few years ago was able to place third among eight candidates. The news reports indicated that she almost won the position she was seeking. This would be understandable if the candidate had changed her mind about her conduct in the past and would make this known to her public. It is apparent, however, that the candidate considers prostitution to be something which is hilariously funny and has openly shown a sense of pride that she feels because of her past reputation.

In spite of all this, the candidate was able to gain the support of a sizeable number of the adults who felt personally responsible for the welfare of their local government and therefore took the time to go to the polls to vote. I would like to commend these people for the initiative shown in voting in the recent election. Their action, however, is a clear indication that we had better become concerned with the moral values that our generation has established.

People often laugh when someone states that we are living in a decadent society. What kind of moral values are we passing on to our children by the action taken in this recent election? Do we want them to accept the fact that immorality in this sense is against the law and frowned upon merely because some of our lawmakers are narrow minded and that as soon as enough people get rid of their prudish attitudes we can regain these things for our society once again?

Most of us are aware of the danger that we all face in the threat of atheistic communism. I am confident that we will win the battle with communism, but I am concerned also that our life will be destroyed by another enemy who poses an awesome threat but wears a disguise that we are putting on it. May God give us the wisdom to wake up to the threat of this deadly enemy from within.

Error In Story About Speaker

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Wednesday, April 11, a press release was submitted to the I-J by the Wilkins Post (San Rafael) of the American Legion announcing the forthcoming lecture by Karl Prussian, April 14, at the San Rafael High School.

This press release was not printed. Instead, a new press release was concocted by someone in the I-J newsroom. The last sentence read, "Under the Francis Amendment, he (Karl Prussian) would be denied use of the high school for speaking because of his former Communist membership."

"Journalism" such as the above concerning the "Louis Francis Amendment" would not have been possible if the I-J had printed the amendment in full many weeks ago.

I, therefore, challenge the I-J to print in full the section of the amendment that would deny Mr. Prussian the use of the high school.

Air Raid Siren Worries A Few But There Was No Panic In Streets

In these times of automation, anything can happen.

Take for instance last week in Corte Madera when that house at 296 Summit Avenue was destroyed by fire.

When the fire department received the call, the automatic air horn fire alarm was sounded. The alarm system was supposed to blow a series of horn combinations to call the town's volunteer firemen.

But instead, the alarm disengaged after only the first of the series had been completed.

Corte Madera Patrolman Charles E. Rester did the next best thing possible to call the firemen. He pumped the manually operated air raid siren.

When the air raid siren started wailing, we must remember, it was 4:15 a.m. That's 4:15 in the morning—real early morning.

I have been told quite a few people in Corte Madera started looking in the sky and praying when the air raid siren woke them up. A lotta' people figured it was truly the real thing. They knew it wouldn't be an unannounced test that time of morning.

I'm glad there wasn't "panic in the streets" over the malfunction, but ya can't say it wasn't possible. Reports I heard were that quite a few persons hopped out of bed in a hurry.

"PREPARATION" is a word that can be used to substitute for quite a few other words. Here is a good example taken from a bottle of rubbing alcohol:

"Notice: This preparation is made from isopropyl alcohol and does not contain ethel or grain alcohol and is not sold as a substitute for 'preparations' containing ethel or grain alcohol."

Now what could they mean by preparations in that sentence?

YOU CAN ALWAYS get a funny story from a fireman.

Kentfield Fire Chief John McLeran and his Assistant Fire Chief Guido Mariani told me about a costume party the Kentfield firemen had some years back.

McLeran and Mariani were both dressed as men from outer space and were having a great time at the fire house when—wouldn't you know it —a fire was reported in a Kentfield home.

No time to change clothes, the firemen rushed on the trucks and were off within seconds.

When they got to the fire and started reeling out the hoses, a few neighborhood kids ran to the fire, took one look at the "moon men" who were putting out the fire, and ran the other way.

A FAMILIAR FACE was missing from the Tamalpais Union High School District board meeting Monday night.

Ed Neumeier, who handles the publicity for the district, was out of town on vacation. It was the first board meeting Ed has missed in the three years he has been with the district.

I would say that's a darn good record.

WHAT'S THIS I hear about a move to reduce the price of the San Rafael-Richmond bridge from 75 cents to a quarter?

It's about time.

China Reds Caught In Descending Spiral Of Lagging Farm Production

HONG KONG — "The brigade leader called the whole village together to lecture us about 'selfish with manure.' But what do you expect? When the ration is so low, and life itself depends on what we grow on our private plots, who will give fertilizer to the fields belonging to the commune?"

The speaker was a Chinese farmer. He was workworn at 35 years old, but he was also one of the shrewdest and least hungry-deadened of the 40-odd newly arrived refugees from the Communist mainland I have now interrogated here and in Macao.

THE ESTABLISHMENT of the farm communes plunged the Chinese countryside into such misery that the almighty state was finally forced to concede private plots to the peasantry. The purpose of giving each peasant a few square yards of the poorer land to till on his own time was to supplement the perilously low rural diet.

Even so, the level of nourishment of the Chinese masses still remains frighteningly low. An undoubtedly reliable and scientific computation of refugee evidence gives 1,300 to 1,600 calories per day, according to labor category, as the total average food intake of Chinese workers at the present time.

AS THE OFFICIALLY provided ration is so inadequate, it is natural for the peasants to be "selfish with manure," in order to expand production on their tiny private plots to the utmost. But persistent peasant "selfishness with manure" is highly likely to lead to a further drop in the already unsatisfactory output of the far more important commune-land.

If output on the commune-land drops for this reason, the ration must also be reduced. A net drop in the masses' food intake will then result from the concentration of China's immemorially most valuable fertilizer on these private plots, which were originally intended to bolster food intake.

Another such problem is simply the physical condition of the Chinese masses. On 1,300 to 1,600 calories a day, people do not die of starvation, as they would in an acute famine. But even the hardy and resistant Chinese are enfeebled by this low level of nourishment. And men and women weakened by hunger do not make good field hands.

THE POINT cannot be finally proven. Yet on the face of the known facts, it is logical to suppose that the physical condition of the rural population had much more to do with the poor harvests of the last three years than the "natural calamities" blamed by the Peking leadership.

In truth, the sole clearly identifiable natural calamity in this whole three-year period was the bad weather which cut in half the north Chinese winter wheat harvest of 1961.

In this reporter's opinion, the odds are therefore at least 5 to 1 that Communist China today is indeed caught in a descending spiral. But such a spiral cannot go downwards indefinitely without producing a violent result. Thus the question for China today is: which of the possible kinds of violent result is now the most likely?

Dark Is High On 'Mature' Giants

MILWAUKEE (AP)—San Francisco manager Alvin Dark thinks his Giants have come of age and are ready for a shot at the National League pennant.

"I like our ball club," Dark said flatly yesterday after the Giants and Juan Marichal struggled to a 7-6 victory over the Milwaukee Braves despite a pair of homers by Eddie Mathews.

"The club has matured," the soft-spoken field boss said. "The players know how to play ball. They know how to win ball games.

"We have a good, adequate pitching staff and a balanced ball club. Orlando Cepeda has another year of experience behind him and can be depended upon to hit. Chuck Hiller is coming along at second. Jose Pagan has proven himself to be a real good shortstop. And Harvey Kuenn knows the pitchers now after a season in the National League."

"Any one of six clubs can win it," he said. "The one which gets the best pitching will do it. I go along with Branch Rickey's thoughts that pitching is 70 to 90 per cent of the game."

Dark has his pitching lined up for the next four games. Billy O'Dell (2-0) will start at Cincinnati tomorrow. Jack Sanford and Billy Pierce will close out the Cincinnati series and Marichal is due to open against the Pirates at Pittsburgh.

The Giants are idle today.

"I'm going to pass up Mike McCormick for a while," Dark said. "He had a stiff shoulder in spring training and I think that now he's just weak. He can't loosen up in the bullpen so I don't know when I'll be able to use him."

Marichal, who usually handcuffs the Braves, was a bit off form, surrendering 11 hits and four walks, but managed to go the distance in the Milwaukee series windup in 40-degree weather.

Mathews' third and fourth homers of the season and Joe Adcock's solo blast, his second, accounted for all the Braves' scoring.

Mathews, a notorious slow starter in the spring in past years, drove in eight runs with three homers in the Giants' two-day stop at County Stadium. He had only three RBI's in the Braves' first seven games.

"I didn't hit at all in spring training, although I got a couple of homers when we left Florida and went to Arizona for exhibition games," the slugging third baseman said. "Then I couldn't do anything on the road. Maybe these last couple of days have broken my spring jinx. I hope so."

The 30-year-old veteran of 10 full seasons in the National League boosted his career home run total to 374. But, acknowledging congratulations, he said: "It's a lot better to hit them when you win."

Dark Outguessed Himself Again In Wednesday Loss To Milwaukee

CONNOLLY

Is Alvin Dark, S.F. manager, about to make a prophet of Sam "Toothpick" Jones, discarded Giant pitcher?

If you recall last winter Ol' Sam blamed his failure to perform up to snuff on the "jittery-panicky" tactics of the present Giant skipper.

Wednesday, in Milwaukee, it looked as though Dark suffered a relapse of his 1961 jitters when he jerked pitcher Jack Sanford too early. The subsequent effect of removing Sanford ultimately cost the Giants a victory and proved to some extent that "Toothpick Sam" wasn't exactly dreaming in his accusation of Dark.

My own opinion inclines to favor Dark, wherever Sanford is concerned for he can blow up quicker than it takes Dark to think about yanking him.

You can call it second guessing or anything you like but the "Dark jitters," at times, are evident, a sort of an emotional explosion of an eager beaver sophomore manager.

The number two "Dark jitters" case in the same game at Milwaukee appeared when Willie McCovey was announced as a pinch hitter and almost simultaneously withdrawn for Manny Mota, a rookie, who, in his first big league bat appearance, looked at three fast ones to end the rally and the ball game.

SOMETIMES A manager can outguess himself and I think this is the glaring weakness of Al Dark. He has no private advisors on his staff. They're all generals and their thoughts seldom are counter-manded.

An example of how a manager can outguess himself is the case of Willie Mays and his costly court appearance. Willie was late for the game and when he did arrive wasn't put into the lineup immediately.

Leo Durocher, Dodger coach, in an interview after the game, gave Dark the "razoo." Leo claimed Dark's failure to insert Willie into the lineup helped the Dodgers to victory.

IN TRYING to pin-point the flaws in Giant management so early in the season, is not intended as an indictment of Dark but rather a reminder of similar occurences that cost them many lost games in 1961.

To prove how hard it is to master-mind from the bench, managers hire three or four coaches to help them make decisions in the clutch. With all that talent to call on you'd think mistakes or jittery or panicky moves by a manager would cease. But so far in 1962 it is continuing at a rapid pace.

WHILE ON the subject of coaches, the Giants had one of the best pitching coaches in the business in Bill Posedel. But Bill wasn't a Giant alumnus and went out like a light when Dark became manager.

The same goes for a baseline coach. Salty Parker, who was let go last year, wasn't a Giant Alumnus and felt like an interloper and got the pork barrel treatment.

Herman Franks, a third base coach before Parker, was the victim of a bum rap. He was tossed out the window on account of stupid base running by a dummy Giant. The Giants lost the game and Franks his job. He had given the base runner the right sign but it was ignored.

Bucs Near Record

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The Pittsburgh Pirates have broken a 24-year-old club record and are within two games of the modern all-time major league record for consecutive victories at the start of the season, proving that sometimes it does pay to stand pat in baseball.

Most front offices would have torn apart a team that won a world championship in 1960 and then collapsed into a sixth-place finish in 1961.

General Manager Joe Brown, however, decided it wasn't time to panic and placed his 1962 hopes in the hands of the men who brought the Pirates a world championship in 1960.

He isn't sorry—not yet, at least.

The Pirates ran their winning streak to eight games with a 6-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies last night and that means (1) they have broken the club mark for a season's fastest start set by the 1938 Pirates and (2) are within two games of the modern major league record of 10 straight wins to open a season set by the 1955 Brooklyn Dodgers.

Bill Mazeroski, Bill Virdon, Dick Groat and Dick Stuart had two hits each in the Pirates' latest victory. Al McBean, 23, from the Virgin Islands, went five innings to gain credit for the win with Jack Lamabe finishing. Art Mahaffey suffered his first loss for the Phillies.

CARDS UNBEATEN

The unbeaten St. Louis Cardinals beat the New York Mets, 9-4, for their sixth straight win, the Los Angeles Dodgers edged out the Cincinnati Reds, 4-3, the San Francisco Giants scored a 7-6 triumph over the Milwaukee Braves and the Houston Colts defeated the Chicago Cubs, 6-0, in other national league action.

Stan Musial drove in three runs with two singles and Ken Boyer and Curt Flood homered for the Cardinals who dealt the winless Mets their seventh loss in a row. Musial's two hits boosted him into a second-place tie with Babe Ruth for total bases with 5,793—trailing only Ty Cobb's 5,863. Rookie Ray Washburn was the winning pitcher.

Homers by Duke Snider and Willie Davis and Ron Perranoski's clutch relief of Sandy Koufax gave the Dodgers their victory over the Reds, whose three-game winning streak went by the boards. Koufax won his second game and Moe Drabowsky lost his second.

Ex-American leaguer Dean Stone pitched a five-hitter for his second consecutive shutout over the Cubs. Jim Pendleton and Merritt Ranew had three hits each for the Colts.

'Punchless' White Sox Display Some Muscles

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Power? The Chicago White Sox are loaded with it. That's right—the Chicago White Sox.

The supposedly punchless White Sox turned to the long ball again yesterday, running their winning streak to four games with a 10-3 walloping of the Minnesota Twins, and remaining at the head of the class in the American League standings.

Outfielder Jim Landis ballooned his average from .167 to .294 with a single and a pair of homers—one a grand slam that capped a nine-run explosion in the first inning.

They were the ninth and 10th homers—tops in the A.L. —for the White Sox.

Mickey Mantle homered in the New York Yankees 3-1 victory over Baltimore, Lu Clinton's's grand slam homer carried Boston to a 9-5 triumph over Detroit and Billy Moran's two-run shot gave the Los Angeles Angels a 6-4, 12-inning win over Kansas City.

Landis opened against Twins' starter Jim Kaat (0-1) with a single and put the finishing touches on the first inning outburst with his grand slam off Georges Maranda. He belted his other homer in the sixth off Ted Sadowski. John Buzhardt (1-1) went the distance for the White Sox.

Mantle got the Yankees started with a second inning homer off loser Chuck Estrada (1-1) and scored the final run in the ninth. Ralph Terry (3-0) was the winner.

Army Gives Ron Back To Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP) — Shortstop Ron Hansen was added to the playing roster of the Baltimore Orioles today after he was granted an additional 30-day leave by the Army.

Hansen, Baltimore's regular shortstop the past two seasons and American League rookie of the year in 1960, was recalled into the Army as a reservist last fall.

He was granted leave last month and participated in spring training with the Orioles. Since the season opened, has has worked out with the club but has not been able to sit on the bench during games since he was not on the active roster.

Hansen had to report back from his leave at nearby Ft. Meade today. After a duty-free weekend, his new 30-day leave will begin Monday.

"I'm not proud. I would wear binoculars if I thought they would help my putting."

"Physically, I feel wonderful," the Slammer said. "I figure I can keep playing in tournaments until I'm 60."

FANCY—BUT FUTILE—FORM

Beverly Bryant of Peoria, Ill., drew a large gallery at the Women's International Bowling Congress tournament this week because of her "way back" backswing. The fancy form failed to pay off. She was 20 pins below her 170 average. Her feet are bare here, but she wore shoes in actual competition. (AP Wirephoto)

Army's Loss Will Be Oriole's Gain

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

The New York Yankees are ready to welcome soldier Tony Kubek back with open arms, but it hardly figures to make much difference in their drive to the American League pennant.

The Baltimore Orioles, though, expected by many observers to make the strongest challenge for the A.L. flag, concede their chances are vastly improved with the imminent return of Army reservists Steve Barber, Ron Hansen and Barry Shetrone.

All this came about yesterday with the disclosure by the Army that some—and possibly all—of the 20 major league baseball players summoned to duty as military reservists last fall may be able to rejoin their clubs in May on grounds that they hold seasonal jobs.

According to the edict, such stars as Kubek, Barber and Hansen and Jim (Mudcat) Grant of the Cleveland Indians are eligible for release ahead of the August date set for reservists generally by President Kennedy. An Army spokesman, who cautioned that each individual case will be determined on its own merits, said that professional baseball players fall in the same category as other seasonal employes such as school teachers and farm workers.

There is, however, no guarantee that applications for release in May will be granted. For one thing, the player's commanding officer must determine that his release will not seriously impair military effectiveness of the unit to which he is assigned.

NO PROBLEM

In the case of Hansen and Barber, apparently this will not be a problem. Barber, one of the brightest new pitchers in the A.L., currently is on duty at Fort Bragg, N.C., but is being granted weekend passes to pitch for the Orioles. Hansen, the A.L. rookie of the year in 1960, was granted a 30-day leave of absence for spring training and on Monday, April 23, begins another 30 day leave. He is stationed at Fort Meade, Md.

Kubek, 1961 A.L. All-star shortstop, has not had one day off for any baseball activity since he was assigned to Fort Lewis, Wash. Because of that, there is a strong likelihood that he may get out even sooner.

"I hope it is true," said Yankee Manager Ralph Houk without the trace of a smile. "It sure will be great to get a ballayer like that back. I'll bet he's ready to play in four days. He is always in good shape psysically."

Actually, the return of Kubek would pose a problem for Houk, who already has two fine young shortstops in Tom Tresh and Phil Linz, both excellent fielders and good hitters who currently are alternating at the spot.

OTHER PLAYERS

Other American League players in the early-discharge category are infielder Deron Johnson of the Kansas City Athletics; and outfielder George Thomas, infielder Gene Leek and pitcher Ron Moeller of the Los Angeles Angels.

The 10 National League players on the defense list are catcher Dick Bertell and outfielder Jim McAnany of the Chicago Cubs; pitcher Dick Drott and infielder George Williams of the Houston Colts; pitcher Charlie Spell of the Los Angeles Dodgers; catcher Bob Taylor of the Milwaukee Braves; catcher Jim Coker and infielder Ruben Amaro of the Philadelphia Phillies and catcher John Orsino and pitchers Roger Sinner and Verle Tiefenthaler of the San Francisco Giants.

However, the return of this group hardly is expected to make much difference in the N.L. race except perhaps for Orsino, who joined the Giants at the tail end of the 1961 season and showed strong promise.

Li'l Giants Down Padres

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—Rookie Gerry Thomas Pitched his first Pacific Coast League win last night as he led the Tacoma Giants to a 6-1 victory over the San Diego Padres.

Thomas was relieved by Julio Navarro in the seventh after yielding his fifth hit and walking two straight batters.

Dusty Rhodes batted in two runs for the Giants with a sacrifice fly and a single. The Giants leave for Hawaii tonight. Bob Goetz was picked to face the Hawaii Islanders.

Finn Captures Boston Marathon—Third Time

BOSTON (AP) —Eino Oksanen at 31 must be ranked a top candidate for the 1964 Olympic marathon in Tokyo, until proved otherwise.

The police detective from Helsinki, Finland, captured his third Boston A. A. Marathon classic yesterday in 2:23:48.

"If possible, I'd like to win here again next year," he said.

Though Oksanen does not care to look as far ahead as the Olympics, this smooth-striding machine with the thatch of bobbing reddish hair proved himself more than a match for the field of 181 starters.

Over the last 10 miles, Oksanen's only serious rival was countryman Paave Pystynen, 30, a career army man. He shot away from him some five miles from the finish and beat him by 350 yards, a revenge victory. Oksanen, rated the top marathoner in Finland, was leading the national championship race last year when a cramp slowed him down and Pystynen came home ahead of him.

Oksanen now would like an opportunity to redeem himself for a 24th place in the 1960 Rome Olympics.

Oksanen again proved he is out to win races, not set records. In his earlier victories in 1959 and '61 (he did not compete here two years ago), Oksanen dogged the heels of America's Johnny Kelley until the last three quarters of a mile before calling on a powerful reserve burst to win going away.

U.S. Marine Lt. Alex Breckenridge finished third, Kelley—only American to win in the past 17 years—came home fourth—followed by Ted Atkins of Toronto, Terry of Groton, Conn.; Allen Hull Jr., of Brownsville, Vt.; Richard Haines of Washington, D.C., and Larry Damon, two-time Olympic skier, from St. Johnsbury, Vt.

NEW HEAVENLY VALLEY TRAMWAY

This is the artist's drawing of the new aerial tramway that will be installed at Heavenly Valley for next winter sports season. The tramway, 4,000 feet long, will include two 25-passenger cars. Construction will start in approximately two weeks. The tramway will provide a scenic ride high above the south shore of Lake Tahoe in the summer and be used by skier in the winter.

Hot-Putting Knudson Tops Houston Tourney

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—"I was putting like gangbusters, wasn't I?" grinned young George Knudson after he took the early lead in the $50,000 Houston Classic golf tournament.

Knudson, of Toronto, shot a four-under par 66 on the rugged Memorial Park Municipal Course for his 18-hole lead yesterday. Jacky Cupit of Longview, Tex., and Jay Hebert of Lafayette, La., were right behind him at 67.

"I bought a new putter in Mobile in November, and I've been going good ever since," Knudson said. "I've won three times since then and finished second once.

Other golfers to break par were Bruce Crampton, Sydney, Australia, Billy Maxwell, Las Vegas, Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex., Don January of Dallas, Bo Winninger, Odessa, Paul Harney, Worcester, Mass., and Dave Marr, Sun City, Ariz.—all at 69.

Knudson, No. 39 in the list of PGA money winners this year, bought his new putter and then won in Coral Gables, San Juan and Maracaibo. He finished second in San Francisco's Lucky International open.

Teen-Agers Star At Outdoor Indoor

By JACK STEVENSON

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Teenaged girls held the spotlight in the 1962 AAU National Women's Indoor Swimming Championships today after blustery weather failed to check record breaking performances.

Two meet records and one American mark went into the books after only four events of this three-day program. A pair of 16-year-olds from opposite ends of the nation set the records.

This indoor meet is being held outdoors at the Arden Hills Tennis and Swimming Club in its 25-yard pool. AAU officials pointed out that it isn't unusual for the meet to be held outside, because the size of the pool and not its location is the deciding factor.

Sharon Finneran of Los Angeles captured her first national title, winning the 400-yard individual medley in 4 minutes, 52.9 seconds. That bettered the 4:55.5 of last year by the now retired Becky Collins. Sharon set American and meet records.

Miss Finneran took the lead early and held it against the challenge of Robyn Johnson of Arlington, Va., who earlier had smashed a meet mark with a winning 55.5 seconds in the 100-yard freestyle.

Miss Johnson's performance erased the meet record of :55.8 by Chris Von Saltza and also tied the American standard.

Summaries of yesterday's events:

One meter diving: 1, Patsy Willard, Phoenix, Ariz., 357.20. 2, Barbara McAllister, Phoenix, Ariz., 352.05. 3, Joel Leuzi O'Connell, Fremont, Calif., 351.85. 4, Linda Cooper, San Bernardino, Calif., 309.75. 5, Bette Barr, Phoenix, Ariz., 286.18. 6, Karen Ryan, Ann Arbor, Mich., 282.10. 7, Nancy Lucas, Chicago, Ill., 279.20. 8, Kathy Flicker, Milburn, N.J., 279.10.

(Betters meet and American record of 4:55.5 by Becky Collins in 1961.) 2, Robyn Johnson, Arlington, Va., 4:56.5. 3, Gina Ambrose, Santa Clara, 5:00.2. 4, Joan Ferris, Sacramento, 5:02.0. 5, Laurel Watson, Santa Clara, 5:09.5. 6, Andrea Hopkins, Bethel Park, Pa., 5:12.0.

Stanford Golfer Has 2-Stroke Lead In Intercollegiate

SANTA CRUZ (AP) — Peter Choate of Stanford has a two-stroke individual lead and San Diego State a single stroke team advantage into the second round of the Far Western Intercollegiate Golf Tournament here today.

Choate fired a 2-under-par 69 in wet, windy weather over the Pasatiempo golf course yesterday. Chuck Courtney shot a 71 to help San Diego State to a 297, a stroke ahead of Stanford.

The team race, based on each school's four low scorers, concludes today. The individual race finishes with two more rounds Saturday.

Defending champion John Lotz of San Jose was five strokes behind Choate. Fresno State, the 1961 team champ, was fourth at 306.

Grouped in third at 73 were Bill Farish, Stanford; Glenn Moran, San Francisco State; Paul Tuttle, San Diego State; and Arnold Kirschenmann, Fresno State.

BOWLING HIGHLIGHTS

660 Series At Greenbrae

The 910 Classic League gathered the big scores at Greenbrae Lanes in bowling this past week.

Gary Johnson rapped out a 660 top series with high games of 229 and 233. The highest individual game of the week was rolled by Bob Curtin. His 267 also helped give him a commendable 635 series. Other high single games in the same league were tossed by Walt Silva, 247, and Ray Brusati, 248.

High scores in female competition were tallied by Sharon Miller, who rolled a 534 series in the Coffee Cuppers League and by Ev Cusimano who managed a 210 single, 526 series in the Crazy Eight Plus loop.

High scores at Greenbrae this week:

Middle-June Date Set For Fullmer, Pender Title Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—Gene Fullmer and Paul Pender have signed for a world middleweight championship bout in June in the Montana State College field house in Bozeman, Mont.

The signing was announced Wednesday by promoters Sam Silverman of Boston and Norman Rothschild of Syracuse, N. Y., after a meeting of the two boxers and their representatives in a Chicago hotel.

Fullmer of West Jordan, Utah, is recognized as middleweight champion by the National Boxing Assn. Pender of Brookline, Mass., has title recognition in New York, Massachusetts and Europe.

Rothschild said the date for the bout has not been set, but it will be some time in the middle of June. The promoters, who staged a fight between Fullmer and Joey Giardello in the college field house in Bozeman in 1960, predicted a gate of about $175,000.

Trout Season Opens In Eight Days; Catchables Planted In Local Lakes

STEVENS

Only eight more days to the opening of trout season—Saturday, April 28, to be exact. Many hundreds of avid anglers have gone over their gear, sharpened their hooks, inspected their rods and lines and are trying to make up their minds on where to go on the opening weekend. As usual, a large proportion of these eager ones will head for the hills and streams in the distant mountains, but some will be quite content to cast their flies or spinners or baits in the more easily reached, closer-to-home spots where their chances of a creelful of fish are probably much better than if they traveled far to fish.

NOW, MIND YOU, we have better water conditions at present than we have had for some years. The state has, or will have by the 28th, planted thousands of catchable sized trout in some 37 creeks, rivers, lakes and reservoirs covering an area from San Luis Obispo County on the south to Mendocino County on the north.

I suggest you look over the list that follows and pick your spot. Cut it out and save it for directions.

MARIN

Bon Tempe Lake, Kent Lake, Lagunitas Lake (all near Fairfax), Nicassio Lake (west of Nicasio), and Phoenix Lake (1 mile southwest of San Anselmo) are all Marin Municipal Water District lakes open to public fishing with permit required for all persons 17 or older. Full-season permit, $3, good on all 5 lakes, available at any of the lakes or at MMWD office in San Rafael. Bon Tempe, Kent, Lagunitas and Phoenex Lakes are stocked with catchables and open Monday through Saturday, closed Sundays. Nicasio Lake open every day of the season, not stocked with catchables but offers fishing for trout from previous plants of fingerlings.

Rodeo Lagoon, on Fort Cronkhite Military Reservation near Golden Gate. Permit required but is free. Season permit available from MP at Fort Cronkhite or from office of Provost Marshal at the Presidio in San Francisco.

SAN LUIS OBISPO

Arroyo Grande Creek, east from town of Arroyo Grande. Atascadero Creek, between Atascadero and Morrow Bay. Chorro Reservoir, at Camp San Luis Obispo. Limited to 100 anglers per day on first-come first-served basis. Lopez Canyon Creek, stocked upstream from junction with Arroyo Grande Creek. Reservoir Canyon Lake, 1 mile north of San Luis Obispo. San Simeon Lagoon, north of San Simeon on Hwy. 1.

MONTEREY

Arroyo Seco Creek, northwest of King City. Road follows stream from Memorial Park to Escondido. No fishing permitted on Huter-Liggett Military Reservation. Big Sur River, in Pfeiffer State Park via Hwy. 1. Good trails to upper Big Sur area out of State Park. Carmel River, stocked below Los Padres Reservoir and San Clemente Reservoir. Los Padres Reservoir, Carmel Valley road, via Cachagua Road. Nacimiento River, on national forest land 30 miles west of King City. No fishing permitted on Hunter-Liggett Military Reservation.

SANTA CRUZ

Corralitos Creek, north of Watsonville. Fall Creek, a tributary of San Lorenzo River near Felton. Will not be stocked until May 30. Newell Creek Reservoir, east of Ben Lomond. Fingerlings stocked last year. Will get catchables when facilities suitable. San Lorenzo River, upper section only, north of Boulder Creek. Will not be stocked until May 30. Lower section, below Boulder Creek is closed San Vicente Creek, at Davenport off Coast Highway.

SANTA CLARA

Almaden Reservoir, south of San Jose on Almaden Road. Chesbro (Llagas) Reservoir, about two miles west of Morgan Hill. Coyote River, from immediately below Anderson Dam downstream for about one mile. Guadalupe River, about five miles southwest of San Jose. Stevens Creek Reservoir, on Stevens Creek Road from Cupertino. Uvas Creek Reservoir, about two miles west of Morgan Hill.

TITLE FIGHT

Challenger Ortiz Hexed By 'Eye'

By BOB MYERS

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Joe Brown, the lightweight champion of the world, poses formidable opposition enough for Carlos Ortiz in his bid to win the title here in a nationally-televised fight.

But Carlos may as well be warned. He'll be up against another factor when he tackles Old Joe tomorrow night.

That will be Dugie and his "transcontinental eye."

Dugie, it may be revealed, styles himself "the little champ Young Kid Dugan." He now corresponds from Hot Springs, Ark., and was once a fighter, if not a little champion, about 40 years ago.

Dugie, according to Brown and his handlers, has "seen" the champion through 11 successive defenses of his title.

"He takes up where Jimmy Grippo or 'Evil Eye' Finkle left off," explained trainer Bill Gore. He referred to a pair of ring characters who purportedly could put a hex on a fighter by visual hypnotism.

"But they had to be at a fight in person, Dugie does it cross-country," Brown's manager, Lou Viscusi, added with high good humor.

The champion Brown is no man to take lightly any possible assistance, however remote it might be.

"The letter, it's here," Brown exclaimed Wednesday, waving a letter from Kid Dugan.

The communication forgave Viscusi, Brown and Gore for neglecting to send him transportation money to Las Vegas, and assured Brown:

"I love you all, and through the very medium of yourself and the television, I got my transcontinental devastating eye on your opponent, and you will score a sensational victory."

Careful, Carlos, of the transcontinental eye.

Oregon Track Strength Vs. USC Field Power Tomorrow

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The track strength of Oregon and field power of Southern California collide tomorrow in Los Angeles Coliseum in the most important dual meet of 1962.

Oregon, the northwest titan which has lost only to USC in the past decade, is given the best opportunity any team has had in years to beat the Trojans, who haven't lost a dual meet since May 12, 1945—that one to Cal Tech.

In its first meeting with USC three years ago at Stanford, Oregon came down to the relay still with a chance to win. But its personnel was so spent the relay team finished nearly a half lap behind. Last year USC won 73-58.

With Canadian co-world record holder Harry Jerome in the sprints, multi-American record holder Dyrol Burleson heading a potent distance team, and NCAA champion Jerry Tarr in the hurdles, Oregon is favored in every individual running event except the 440.

But the Trojans, with enough good runners to pick up plenty of place and show points, should have most of the field event leaders.

National shotput champion Dallas Long, javelin thrower Jan Sikersky and pole vaulter Mel Hein Jr. are USC's best bets. Neither team is particularly strong in the broad jump or high jump, however, leaving a bundle of points that could shift either way.

A relay decider would match Rex Cawley and USC's other 440 strength against a combination of Oregon's sprinters and middle distance men.

Elsewhere, Stanford is favored to stop visting Washington, UCLA should whip California in Los Angeles, potent San Jose hosts weak Fresno State; Oregon State should handle Idaho and Washington State at Pullman, and Occidental rates over Long Beach State.

Decathlon ace C. K. Yang, always good for about 20 points, should get UCLA a win after consecutive relay and meet losses to Stanford and Occidental.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. William V. Burke of 350 Paloma Avenue, San Rafael, celebrated their golden wedding Sunday at a family gathering at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Jack L. Oldis, in Corte Madera. Mrs. Burke's three brothers, Albert, Charles and Arthur Taubert, and their wives, came from Madison, Wis., to attend the surprise party for the couple. The Burkes were born and married in Wisconsin, moved to California in 1924 and have made their home in San Rafael for the past six years.

MRS. WARD AUSTIN RETIRING IN JUNE

Mrs. Ward H. Austin, mathematics teacher at Tamalpais High School, stopped re-papering the upstairs of her Larkspur home just long enough for a half hour conversation on how it feels to be retiring.

She looked more like a woman ready to begin a teaching career than one with 14 years of teaching mathematics, an impressive record of devotion to community service, and a grown family of three.

"I've gone through certain periods in my life when I've done certain things," she said. "When I've finished one period, I have no regrets about leaving it.

"Right now my husband and I are so busy planning for our trip to New Zealand this August that I have no regrets about leaving my teaching job." They also are going to Australia.

Mrs. Austin's husband retired last year from the presidency of College of Marin.

"We chose New Zealand for our first trip," she continued, "because we both love the wide open spaces. We began our married life in 1923 by hiking across the Sierra with back packs.

"We've spent all our summers since in the mountains. When the three children were young, we took a burro so the littlest ones could ride."

A recent article in a Sierra Club magazine described a corner of the Sierra where you might walk for half an hour without seeing anyone.

"When we started packing, you didn't see anyone for two weeks. Now we camp in the Tetons Mountains in Wyoming because we feel they have the wild isolation we used to find in the Sierra."

Mrs. Austin, who worked with the Red Cross during World War II, was president of the Marin Campfire Girl council for 10 years and spent many hours helping the Marin Community Chest fund drives (now United Fund), feels one needs a change after doing anything too long.

As for teaching, she feels it has its frustrating moments.

MRS. WARD H. AUSTIN
Classroom to open spaces

Teaching is an attempt to set a climate so students can and will want to learn. It's a nebulous thing, and you're not always sure how completely you have succeeded."

But Mrs. Austin is busy thinking about the next period in her life to dwell on the past.

Will she and her husband sail to Australia by luxury steamer?

"No. That's too much like being in the middle of a huge crowd. We plan to take a Norwegian freighter. It will be more like the wide open spaces."

Gate Bridge Builders Meet Again—A 25th Anniversary

Eight of the men who supervised construction of the Golden Gate Bridge held a reunion yesterday beneath the huge span they helped build.

The occasion was a cruise aboard the excursion boat Harbor King hosted by television station KPIX, and during which Channel 5's documentary film, "The Bridge Builders," was given a preview showing for the old-timers, press representatives and other guests.

It was the first meeting since the bridge was completed 25 years ago for the key construction figures.

They included Capt. Randolph N. (Rudy) Pettersen of Forest Knolls, who ran the drilling barge in 1929 when the surveys of the Gate floor were made and who participated in virtually every phase of the bridge's construction.

Also on board were:

Walter Cathey, supervisor for the construction of the tower piers; Charles Bender, supervisor of the Bethlehem Steel receiving yard at Alameda where the thousands of tons of steel used in the bridge were unloaded from ships and then transported piece by piece to the site as needed; Howard Schirmer, resident engineer of the North Tower construction; Herman Kurtz, who helped hoist the steel; Wesley Getts, an inspector of cables for the bridge; Charles Hepworth, the first man to cross the Golden Gate Bridge (walking the cable when the spinning carriage got stuck), and Richard Evans, welding supervisor.

All eight contributed interviews to the making of "The Bridge Builders" which will be seen on KPIX May 1 at 7:30 p.m.

Lee M. Mendelson of San Rafael is the producer and writer of the show. Jay Alexander of Novato, known to TV audiences as "Marshall J," is the narrator.

The film helps mark the 25th anniversary of the opening of the bridge which will be celebrated May 27.

Historic films and still photographs showing every phase of the construction of the bridge and including the tragic plunge of 10 workmen to their deaths have been incorporated into the half-hour show.

The documentary was seven months in preparation with the KPIX production staff viewing and editing more than 6,000 feet of film taken during the four and a half year construction period—January, 1933, to May, 1937.

During yesterday's preview aboard the Harbor King, the veteran builders had the time of their lives picking out old friends in the films and recalling incidents of their bridge-building days.

Afterwards, while enjoying a box lunch, the eight continued their reminiscences and exchanged anecdotes from the days when they battled time, height, distance and the weather in the bridging of the Gate.

500 A Day Pay Visits To Mill Valley Display

Beedle, secretary-manager of the chamber of commerce, which is sponsoring the Easter display, said, "Many of the youngsters have never seen spring lambs before." In the display are two lambs, along with chickens, ducks and geese.

Floral decorations and animal display were done in a community effort under chairman Normand Black. Young men of the Mill Valley Teens Inc. set up flower boxes and helped build the fence. Explorer Scout Troop 37 assisted. Girl scouts take care of feeding the animals. The lambs were supplied by Jerry Gooch; the fowls were purchased and will be bought by police officer Antone Quadros when the display is dismounted after Easter Sunday.

Beedle said that flower wells and boxes are for sale, proceeds to be used for next year's display. Further information may be obtained at the chamber of commerce office.

Terra Linda High World Fair To Imitate Seattle

The fair, meant to imitate the spirit of Seattle's World Fair, which nearly 100 Terra Linda High School students will attend, is intended to give Terra Linda residents and their friends a chance for an inexpensive day of fun, Principal Webster Wilson said today.

Gates will open at 10 a.m., and although tickets aren't necessary for admission, persons purchasing them in the pre-fair sale will be admitted to special events during the day and evening—or may use them to buy food.

A queen, to be chosen by vote of ticket holders, will be crowned at the fair.

The fair is not intended to be a money-making event, Wilson said, but if any money is left after the bills are paid, it will be put in a scholarship fund.

Dental Lab Building To Be Built

A new building for the Shortridge-Young Dental Laboratories will be erected at 496 B Street, San Rafael. Construction is expected to start next week.

The firm now occupies office space in the Albert Building at 1010 B Street, and plans to move into its new quarters by Aug. 1.

Mrs. Wallace H. Young said the building will be two-story, of contemporary design with a redwood beam and shingle exterior. It was designed by Edward Hageman and Associates and is to be constructed by Wilson and Wedekind. There will be 4,200 square feet of floor space.

The dental laboratories will occupy about 1,600 square feet on the second floor, more than twice the space in the present office, Mrs. Young said. The front part of the lower floor has been leased to the State Board of Equalization. There will be space for two more offices.

Zulus call the Drakensberg mountain range in South Africa the "Quathlambia," which means "heaped up and jagged like a bundle of spearheads."

3 Marinites Are Hurt In Car Accidents

Three Marinites suffered minor injuries in traffic accidents involving small German-made cars Wednesday night and early today, north and south of the Golden Gate Bridge.

Robert Marlborough, 17, of 44 Chula Vista Drive, San Rafael, and his passenger, Heather Ehrlich, 15, of 19 Windward Road, Belvedere, were injured when the 1962 sedan he was driving overturned on Highway 101 south of the Waldo Tunnel about 10:15 p.m.

Marlborough suffered right hand and left leg cuts, and Miss Ehrlich, a bruised knee. Both refused hospitalization. Marlborough told the California Highway Patrol another car cut in front of him as he was southbound, forcing him off the highway.

William Joseph Gray, 20, a salesman of 496 Irving Court, Tiburon, suffered right leg injuries about 2:20 a.m. today juries about 2:20 a.m. yesterday when his 1962 station wagon went off a curve of the Fun-Golden Gate Bridge. He declined hospitalization.

Black Point Lake Boating Is Eyed

A suggestion that the lake on the Amerigo-Pozzi ranch in the Black Point area be used for sail boating if Stafford Lake was unavailable has been made to the Novato parks and recreation advisory commission.

Mrs. John Machado was appointed to investigate the possibilities of using the lake.

Corte Madera Firemen Don New Headgear

The Corte Madera volunteer fire department has received 25 lightweight fiberglass fire helmets from E. D. Bullard Co. of Sausalito, identical to the 2,850 purchased from the Sausalito firm by the Los Angeles fire department.

Each helmet weighs 15 and one-half ounces. The old style metal helmets weigh from three to five pounds each.

Six Watchdogs Fired —With Good Reason

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Maybe watchdogs are a big help, but —

Birmingham police reported that a thief apparently opened a gate at Grabove-Leaf Iron and Metal Co. here, stood back and waited until the six watchdogs wandered out, and then entered and carted off an assortment of merchandise.

Sausalito's Gazebo Remains An Orphan

Sausalito's $5,100 Gazebo remained an orphan in the street today, one month after it was to have been opened as a bus depot.

Mrs. Hazel Thomas, head of Sausalito Taxi Co., was to have taken over the 12-sided kiosk as a headquarters for her cabs and to sell Greyhound tickets. But she rejected it on the grounds that it was two small for two employees.

City Manager Charles A. Brown said delay in getting a new concessionaire was caused by:

1. The recent city election campaign, which took two weeks from the time officials might have spent seeking a tenant.

2. "Reluctance of some tenants to consider the Gazeko because of all the adverse publicity" (including losing council candidate Sally Stanford's drive to convert it into restrooms).

3. Stipulations by the city and Greyhound Lines that it be kept open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. seven days a week.

4. Lack of experience or capital of some applicants.

William G. Melbern, who operates two limousines and a cab, said he is interested and could run it with one man but can't get an answer from the city. He complained, "I think they are using an ouija board —or consulting the stars."

Builders Re-Elect A. Clyde Jones

A. Clyde Jones was re-elected president of the Marin Builders Exchange at a meeting of the board of directors this week.

It is the first time anyone has been elected president of the organization for two successive terms, manager E. Douglas Roberts said. Jones, president of San Rafael Floor Covering, Inc., lives at 9 Golden Hind Passage, Corte Madera.

Also elected to serve for the fiscal year were Charles Hendrickson, San Rafael building contractor, as vice president, and Ernest Schallinger, manager of Western Builders, San Rafael, re-elected as secretary-treasurer.

Drunken Driver Is Fined $166

Judge Leonard A. Thomas of Marin Municipal Court sentenced Richard Carlton Allen, 66, of 8 Edgewater Road. Allen was arrested driving while intoxicated along Belvedere Avenue on April 11.

Doesn't Like Own Product

DUXBURY, Mass. (AP) — Eighty-six-year-old H. E. Merry isn't fond of chickens or eggs, but they're providing a pretty good living for him in his retirement.

When Merry retired from the meat business 10 years ago, he began raising Rhode Island Red chickens and selling "extra large eggs." He says seven of every dozen are double-yolked. He has peddled as many as 215 dozen in a week.

Even so, Merry says, "I dislike both eggs and chickens."

'WHO'S THE FAIREST one of all . . .' Models Mrs. Rudy F. Meiswinkel, left, and Mrs. Donald W. Spaan reflect the theme of the gala fashion show and luncheon St. Sebastian's Women's Club will give April 28. (Independent-Journal photo)

'Reflections Of You' Theme Of St. Sebastian's Show April 28

"Mirror, mirror, on the wall —who's the fairest one of all?"

Thus runs the theme, "Reflections of You," for the St. Sebastian's Women's Club fashion show and luncheon to be given April 28 at noon in the Venetian Room of the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco.

FASHIONS will reflect a day in the life of a Marinite from sun up to sundown and into the glamorous evening hours.

Modeling will be Mesdames M. P. Molinari, D. J. McGonigle, B. J. O'Grady, Lloyd P. Flatland, John McManus, John P. Hazzard, Raymond Dix, Donald W. Spaan, Gerald Cervelli, Rudy Meiswinkel, James Conley, Victor Donati and D. D. Denhart.

Also modeling will be Pat Suacci, Julie Wilhelm, Beth Mellin, and theme models, twins Elizabeth and Kitty Yore. Young fashions will be shown by Cathy Connor and Patty Sullivan.

Junior members of the St. Sebastian's Women's Club will be hostesses. This year the club will be represented by the girls of the parish attending Redwood High School, including Patricia Austin, Susan Beers, Shirley Clark, Judy Helmboldt, Patricia Lesko, Carolyn Riding, Nancy Riding and Dominga Vance.

CHAIRMAN IS Mrs. Roger Yore, assisted by co-chairman Mrs. Alex Hoffer. Other members heading committee are Mesdames Peter Giorgi and Michael Mulligan, reservations; Victor Earll, finance; Donald Baird and Douglas Connor, models; Gus Nachtman, food; Stanley Laurence, hostesses; John Egan, clothes for hostesses; Joseph Minutoli, decorations; Alfred Ruggiero, printing; Emil Torre and Hubert Trembley, awards; Edmond Cassou, advertising; Fred Adams, music; Mel Riccardi, sponsors; Eugene Lombardi, menu; Messrs David Sullivan and Mel Riccardi, hosts for the day; Mrs. Charles D. Helbig, publicity.

ALL PROCEEDS will be added to the building fund of the parish which hopes to build a parochial elementary school.

Invitations have been mailed and members and Mrs. Peter Giorgi of Greenbrae or Mrs. Michael Mulligan of Kentfield are taking reservations.

SANDRA BOYER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boyer of Corte Madera, has been chosen a "Vil Junior" at Wellesley College where she will serve as the adviser to freshmen in her dormitory next year.

Coffee Set For Y-Wives

A coffee hour has been scheduled April 27 for women interested in forming a Central Marin Y-Wives Club at the meeting place of the Tamalpais Y-Wives, at the church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley.

The coffee hour will begin at 10:30 a.m. in the recreation hall of the church, where child care will be provided.

Mrs. N. T. Gilroy and Mrs. R. M. Eschen Jr., who are taking reservations, said that the workings of the club will be explained at the get-acquainted meeting. The Y-Wives Club program is planned by the members to suit their interests.

Surprise Party Given

Mrs. Esther Rabecca of Sausalito was given a surprise party honoring her 75th birthday by her two daughters, Mrs. Walter Silva of Sausalito and Mrs. James McBride of San Rafael. Family members attended the party, given at the Silvas' home.

Novato BPW Has Election Of Officers

The Novato Business and Professional Women's Club elected a charter member, Mrs. Rena Lazzari as president for the 1962-63 year.

Mrs. Ruth Snodgrass of Petaluma, president of the Redwood Empire District, will act as installing officer for the new president and her slate of officers at ceremonies at the Officers' Club at Hamilton Air Force Base on Wednesday.

Mrs. Laverne Robinson will serve as first vice president; Mrs. Winnie Berger, second vice president; Mrs. Gertrude Picchi, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Margaret Morrison, recording secretary, and Mrs. Evelyn Gebhardt, treasurer.

Delegates elected to attend the spring convention of the Redwood Empire District at Eureka April 28 and 29 are Mrs. Mrs. Lazzari, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Alta Johnson. Alternates are Mrs. Jay Links and Mrs. Barbara Sparrow.

Mrs. Ruth Craig, outgoing president and Mrs. Lazzari, will attend the annual state convention of the California Federation of BPW clubs at the Sheraton-Palace in San Francisco.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Domicile Changes Making Headlines In The News Pages

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Domicile changes are making news these days. The E. O. Holters Jr. of Del Mesa, who have four children, Anton, Julie, Henry and Sarah, have bought the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Ross Perry in Bolinas and will use it as a weekend and summer home. The Perrys, now vacationing in Palm Springs, will leave soon after their return for Hawaii. They have rented the Honolulu home of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor for three months.

Jim Taylor is the grandson of Samuel P. Taylor for whom the State Park in Marin was named. Samuel Penfield Taylor, born in New York State, as a youth sailed to California in an old schooner with a small group of friends, in 1849, during the gold rush, and built the first paper mill on the west coast. It was put into operation in 1856. Taylor had gone east to buy the machinery for the mill and to continue his courtship of Sarah Washington Irving, member of the family of Washington Irving, famous American author, and brought her west as a bride.

The James Taylors, who have lived in Hawaii for many years, are coming to California to celebrate their golden wedding, and to visit their daughter who lives in La Habra. They'll also see Mrs. Leavitt Baker of San Rafael, Jim's cousin, also a descendant of the pioneer, Samuel Penfield Taylor.

ON THEIR ANNUAL Easter ski trip to Squaw Valley, inaugurated seven years ago, are Mrs. Jim Hamm of Belvedere and daughters Carol and Trudy. Their guests for the week are Lori Beacock, Dorothy Brewer, Lexie Coleman, Cathy Cross, Jill Lerner, Barbara Misuraca, Cathy Reiger, Carmen Schleiger, Nancy Scott, Esther Tarics, Melinda Wallace and Kendall Weaver. One of the highlights of Easter week was the celebration of the 18th birthday of Barbara Misuraca. Guests skiing in for the party included Wayne Poulson Jr. and some of his high school friends who are also staying in Squaw Valley.

DAVID AND ADA GORFINKEL of Kentfield joined friends for a dinner Thursday night before attending the preview of the San Francisco Art Institute's 81st annual exhibit at the San Francisco Museum of Art. Ada has a painting in the exhibit.

DR. AND MRS. JOHN C. SIEMENS of Kent Woodlands and their 12-year-old daughter, Lori, have returned from a trip east. They flew to Washington, D.C. where they were entertained at dinner by Hershel Loveless, former governor of Iowa, and his wife. Dr. and Mrs. Siemens were joined by their son, Roger, a freshman at Amherst College in Massachusetts and he accompanied them to New York where they met Miss Phyllis Kotite, former Kentfield girl, one of Ambassador Adlai Stevenson's secretaries and visited with the ambassador. Roger returned to Amhert and Dr. and Mrs. Siements and Lori went to Philadelphia, Pa., where he attended a meeting of the American College of Physicians. Then Dr. and Mrs. Siemens and their daughter went to Amherst to see Roger, meet his classmates and witness the pledging ceremonies when Roger became a member of Chi Psi fraternity. He has already earned his freshmen numerals in football and basketball and is now on the freshman la crosse team. Dr. and Mrs. Siemens returned home just in time to help their daughter, Jan, a junior at University of California, celebrate her twenty-first birthday.

MR. AND MRS. W. E. J. ORD of San Rafael have another great grandchild. The newcomer in the clan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Pollock of Menlo Park. She has been named Jennifer Dean and weighed eight and a half pounds when she was born April 7. She has a brother, Jeffrey. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pollock (Gertrude Ord) of Sacramento, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Amos of Fresno.

TEACHER TO WED

The engagement and approaching marriage of Peggy Ann Flynn and David R. Dunlop of Ithaca, N. Y., has been announced. The bride-elect, former clothing teacher at San Rafael High School, is now working toward her master's degree at Cornell University. The wedding will be an event of Aug. 25.

PARTY SET ON LAGOON

The lagoon home of Dr. and Mrs. Benton D. Mathews will be the setting for a cocktail and dinner party on May 11 being planned by Belvedere's Gourmet Guild of Sunny Hills.

Antiques Show Occasion For Host Of Luncheons, Parties

The annual Marin County Antiques Show and Sale has always been an occasion for luncheon get-togethers among both committee members and visitors to the show.

For this year's tenth anniversary show, a 7 to 9 p.m. champagne preview on April 25 will offer additional opportunity for parties. One will be given by the Rev. and Mrs. D. Murray Hammond. (The show benefits the Episcopal Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley, where the Rev. Hammond is rector.

THE HAMMONDS are entertertaining Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Worley of San Jose (she is diocesan president of the Episcopal Church women); the Richard Hardings and William Phelpses, both of Mill Valley. The Worleys will have supper at the Hammond residence after the preview.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison McNear Leppo will entertain Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Babcock of San Mateo at the preview.

Others entertaining include Dr. and Mrs. Richard Rider, whose guests will be Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Rothchild of San Jose, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wellington, whose guests will be the Frank Rowlands of Woodside.

MR. AND MRS. Philip T. Smith have invited the J. O. Elmers of Mill Valley to join them, and both the Peter Behrs and George Blackwell are hosting preview groups.

MR. AND MRS Eugene W. McGeorge have invited Sr. and Sra. Antonio Islas to dinner after the show Saturday night. He is the Mexican consul in Sacramento. Mrs. McGeorge is antiques show and sale chairman this year.

On the show's opening day Mrs. Robert E. Byard Jr., who is champagne preview chairman, will have as her luncheon guests Mesdames Wallace Myers, James Black, Norman Sutherlan and Lee Brillhart, all of San Francisco.

MRS. C. FRANKLIN WHITEHEAD has asked several Santa Rosa friends to join her for luncheon. Her guests will include Mesdames Hilliard Comstock, Fisher Kinslow, Arthur Wright, Leslie Spear, Ernest Finley and Miss Helen Woolsey.

First Grade Teachers Deserve Pat On Back For A Good Start

I think all teachers are great. The greatest among them work in the first grade. Hats off to first grade teachers today.

They began their labors last September, before school started. They gathered books, made lesson plans, prepared their rooms, collected materials. They were ready when the children arrived. Then they spent several weeks studying their small charges. They gave tests to each child. They watched them on the playground, and in class. They talked with their parents. They checked such things as their vocabularies, the thoughts they expressed and the way they followed directions.

Finally, they put them into three groups. The top group was ready to start reading. The others needed more time, in varying degrees. They worked out little stories with the top group, and printed them on wall charts. Later they did the same with the others. They helped their pupils learn new words, and establish good reading habits. They encouraged, advised, helped. They used discipline, when needed.

Each day this year they've taught reading, writing, numbers, art, music, social studies, physical education, science and health. They've been recreation leaders, first aid experts, guides and counselors. They've conferred with parents. They've talked with principals, supervisors and fellow teachers. They've corrected papers far into the night, and prepared their lesson plans after that.

Have they succeeded? Then their pupils are off to a good start. The years ahead will be fine. Have they failed? Then there's trouble ahead, for many. As a group they've done very well. The first grade is the hardest grade to teach. But our teachers stay with it, because they love boys and girls.

(Q) "What size class would be best for the first grade?"
Miss T.

(A) Years ago I experimented in first grade class sizes. I concluded finally that children progressed best in classes of 14 to 18, if they had good teachers.

Barbara Krause Is Wed To Paul Suppo At Las Vegas Rite

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Krause of Corte Madera are announcing the recent marriage of their daughter Barbara Jean to Paul Andre Suppo of Larkspur.

The nuptials took place on April 7 in The Little White Chapel, Las Vegas, Nev. Linda Smith of Livermore was maid of honor and John M. Powers of Alameda was best man.

Barbara is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Olsen and Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Olsen, both of Novato. She has a sister, Mrs. James K. Hawkins (Judith Ann Hawkins), who was a bride last month at Marin Lutheran Church.

Paul is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Andre Suppo of Larkspur. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jules Suppo of San Francisco and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiethare of Carmel, and he is the brother of Suzanne Suppo.

Teenaiders Listed For Awards

Marin Red Cross Teenaiders have been nominated for the 1961 Lane Bryant annual award for outstanding voluntary service to the community.

Each year since 1948 Lane Bryant has honored a group and an individual for having found new or needed solutions to either age-old or just-born problems of humanity. Nominations for the awards come from all over the United States, and finalists are selected by Dr. Robert K. Merton and his staff at Columbia University Bureau of Applied Social Research.

Teenaiders include Junior Gray Ladies, recreation aides, motor service drivers, water safety aides and staff aides. Their programs of community service are extended to the retarded, the crippled and the aged through work programs benefitting Sonoma State Hospital, Marin Rehabilitation Hospital, Center Medical, Marin Aid to Retarded Children, Marindale School, Crippled Children's Society and Lucas Valley.

Yacht Club Plans Easter Activities

A full day of activities is being planned for Easter Sunday at the Corinthian Yacht Club. Brunch will be served at 11 a.m. to members and their guests and at 2 p.m. Easter baskets will be presented to the children.

From 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. cocktails will be served, followed by a family style dinner.

Call To Order A Meeting Of Mothers To Discuss Problems

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI)—When junior spills glue on the dog, do you have a temper tantrum?..

Or are you the calm, cool type who doesn't go into action until first constulting a book by an expert telling exactly how to handle the crisis on the homefront?

Maybe you're the dependent type who reaches for the phone and some direct advice in time of crisis from those who have survived battle fire while raising children. If so, you call mother—or mother-in-law.

Madame — all such classic ways of handling the sticky problems of glue on dog and assorted episodes are passe!

THE REALLY fashionable thing to do in time of crisis now is to live through it as best you can. But at the earliest, call to order a meeting of other young mothers.

Then you swap accounts of dilemmas with the offspring—and discuss horse-sense ways of deal with them.

Out of such discussions come all sorts of solutions—any permissions. Talking with the other young mothers you can learn if you're really brutal when you swat a mulish offspring who has tossed his beans on the floor for the fifth time.

Now who says these young mothers' conferences are becoming very popular is Mrs. Daniel A. Poling, president of the American Mothers Committee, Inc. The organization helps to select the mother of the year.

Mrs. Poling, 82, and the mother of eight and grandmother of 21, described the meetings as informal, usually hastily called and conducted in an atmosphere of generals planning new battle strategy.

WHEN THE YOUNG mothers reach a hurdle that's baffling, they usually refer to a study guide on the subject supplied by the committee's "counselor service to young mothers."

The guides, available free to young mothers, cover everything from thumb-sucking to sibling beating. In between are the usual subjects: housebreaking offspring, feeding episodes, how much love is too much, the left-handed child, discipline with justice, the child who is always late.

Mrs. Poling was interviewed on the eve of her departure for Londan where a relationship is being established along the same lines with the Mothers Union of the British Empire.

As one might expect, the mother of eight even at 82 seems to have super strength. Before the London trip, Mrs. Poling was in Birmingham, Ala., Raleigh, N.C.; and Miami on Mothers' Committee business.

"YOU RAISE children with discipline and love and prayer," she said. "Today the young mothers have a much more complex task. There are so many districtions: television, drinking, cars."

"But if you undergird with prayer, have knowledge and enthusiasm, you ought to succeed."

MRS. DANIEL A. Poling, 82-year-old grandmother, advocates conferences of young mothers to solve problems that confront the modern homemaker. Here she scans wirecopy in a visit to a news service. (UPI Telephoto)

CLIFFORD BUTLER

Novato's CYO Elects Officers

The Catholic Youth Organization Teen-Club of Our Lady of Loretto Church in Novato has elected new officers for the 1962-63 year.

Elected as new president is Clifford Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar I. Butler of Novato.

Clifford is a junior at Novato High School. He stated that plans for the year will be a Communion breakfast April 29, a Mass and breakfast for graduating seniors, a roller skating trip, and special event dances.

Also serving with Clifford will be Sandy Amaral, vice president; Cheryl Hook, recording secretary; Judy McGinnis, corresponding secretary; and Stephen Davidson, treasurer.

The new president has appointed Terry Drobny as religious chairman, Judy Picchi, social chairman, and Noreen Jordan, reporter. Mrs. Robert Manthey is lay adviser, and Gary Edwards is junior moderator.

Visits Grandchild

Mrs. S. T. Farow of San Anselmo has just returned from a visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Almo Cardone of Tahoe City. The Cardones became parents of their fourth child, a son named Dominic Thomas, on March 31. He is the brother of Lynn, Leslie and Lisa Cardone.

'Child Rearing' Topic Planned By Strawberry P-TA

"Facts of Suburban Cultural Influences on Child Rearing" will be the subject of a talk by Dr. Gerald Jampolsky at Wednesday's meeting of the Strawberry Point School Parent-Teacher Assn. at the school starting at 8 p.m.

Dr. Jampolsky, a graduate of Stanford Medical School, has worked in child psychology at Langley Porter Neuropsychiatric Institute in San Francisco. He is assistant clinical professor at the University of California Medical School and consulting psychiatrist for Sunny Hills and the Marin County Probation Dept. and Dept. of Welfare.

New Members Greeted

Two new members, Mrs. Henry Augusto and Miss Betty Croker, have been initiated into Fairfax Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West. They were inducted at ceremonies at the Women's Club in Fairfax.

MAY PARTY PLANNED

Inter-Racial Work Of Church Committee Is Topic For Talk

Mrs. Jesse Parker was guest speaker at the recent meeting of the Woman's Mission Society of the Loma Verde Community Baptist Church.

The speaker is director of the International Inter-Racial Fellowship Committee of the American Baptist Convention of Northern California and the wife of the pastor of Bancroft Baptist Church in San Leandro.

Mrs. Parker told the society that the work of the committee is divided principally among four groups of people—refugees, Indians, migratory workers, foreign students and guests of the government.

THE COMMITTEE aids in sponsoring the entry into this country of foreign refugees and periodically check to see how they are getting along, Mrs. Parker said.

"Homes Open Please" has been sponsored by the committee whereby families volunteer to have one or more American Indian children live with them for the summer. "This is a gratifying experience for a child who probably has known no other home than a one-room shack shared with 10 or 12 people," Mrs. Parker said. The committee also helps settle the American Indian families who move from the reservation to the city in search of an improved way of life.

ANOTHER GROUP that the committee helps is the migratory workers. Generally teams composed of four people visit the migrant camps and conduct Bible school and help in other ways.

A program is also carried on with foreign students through the International House at the University of California. Monthly gatherings are held at the International House as well as homes of other Christian families for about 20 students who live at the house, she said.

Prior to the program a slate of new officers was elected.

Mrs. Albert Wood was elected president. Other officers are Mesdames Cal Horn, vice president and chairman of literature and house party; Billy Joe Moore, vice president and chairman of missions; John C. Park, vice president and chairman of Christian service; Albert L. Richter, vice president and chairman of Christian training; John Tindell, secretary, and Homer Ortmeyer, treasurer.

Dominican Alums Dessert-Bridge Set Wednesday

The Marin Chapter of Dominican College Alumnae will hold its annual dessert-bridge party Wednesday at 1 p.m.

Opening their home and acting as hostesses for the affair are Mesdames Arthur Gorpp Jr., James Drier, Walter Baird, Richard Jackson, H. B. Grandin Jr., James Arbios, Joseph Kelly and Vincent Mullin.

Proceeds will go to the Marin Scholarship Fund which enables a girl from the county to attend Dominican College.

Reservations are to be made Mill Valley.

Club's Jinks Cast Is Feted At Party

Forty members of the cast and production staff of the Sausalito Woman's Club high and low jinks were entertained at a party given at the clubhouse by Mrs. Wint F. Saint and Mrs. Clyde F. Trudell.

Mrs. Saint was chairman and Mrs. Trudell coordinator for the annual fun events.

For entertainment Dr. Emmet L. Rixford showed colored slides and played a tape recording made on the night of the low jinks show, and Dr. R. H. Zumwalt also showed colored slides taken at the same time.

Auxiliary To Hear Talk On Gardening

Mrs. William J. Ferguson of Belvedere, whose unusual garden on the lagoon has been featured in national magazines, will be the guest speaker at a champagne and casserole luncheon at the Tiburon Peninsula Club on April 27.

Sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the club, champagne will be served at noon with buffet service starting at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Ferguson will describe how she achieves interesting effects in her garden through the use of mobile pots and planters and pre-planning for year around color.

"Creating a garden is one very real way of seeking and finding beauty," Mrs. Ferguson says. "It is a quiet way, too and still, even to the highly introverted person, there is a lot to communicate. It seems to me that gardens can be a way of communicating."

The luncheon will be member-prepared from a special menu arranged by chairman Mrs. Sam Mercer and her cohostesses, Mesdames John S. Maxson and Jim James.

Proceeds from the affair will be used to decorate the club in accordance with plans presented to the membership at its March luncheon by Charles Durrie.

In addition to the luncheon and program, the annual meeting has been set for this date and officers of the auxiliary will be elected.

'Sail Into Summer' Theme For Yacht Club Style Show

The Women's Auxiliary of the San Francisco Yacht Club will "Sail Into Summer" Wednesday when it presents a luncheon and fashion show for members and guests. The event will be held at the Belvedere clubhouse and will start at 1 p.m.

Fashions will be shown by Mesdames Eugene Rauscher, William Main, Richard Owen, Leo Tarantino, Allen Olinger, Stevens Manning, Howard Haswell, Leonard Delmas, David Imrie, Michael Shea, Benton Mathews and W. B. Wallace.

Mrs. Enrico Banducci will be guest commentator.

Response Of Three Notrump Shows Game-Going Values

When you use a non-forcing jump raise, our subject for the week, a response of three notrump shows game-going values. The bidding then develops just as though the response had been a forcing raise.

South dealer
Neither side vulnerable

	NORTH
	♠ 8
	♡ Q 9 7 2
	◇ K Q 8
	♣ K 6 5 4 2

	◇ A 7 4
	♣ A 9 7

South	West	North	East
1 ♡	Pass	3 NT	Pass
4 ♣	Pass	4 ♡	Pass
4 ♠	Pass	5 ♣	Pass
5 ◇	Pass	5 ♡	All Pass

Opening lead — ♣ 10

North has minimum values for a forcing response. The forcing raise shows strong trump support (at least four cards) with 13 to 16 points (counting distribution as well as high cards). In this case North has 10 points in high cards and 3 points for the singleton.

Most players would jump to three hearts with the North hand to show these values. If North uses a non-forcing jump raise, however, he bids three notrump to show his strength. In either case, whether North bids a strong three hearts or a strong three notrump, South should think about a slam.

CUE BIDS: South uses cue bids to explore slam possibilities. If North has a bare minimum, slam is unlikely and North must be permitted to say so. If North has extra values, he will accept the invitation to slam.

In this case North has a minimum hand and must fight his partner off. North signs off at four hearts to begin with. When South bids four spades, North can afford to show the fit with clubs since that might be all South wants to know.

As it happens, South still cannot bid the slam. He extends a further invitation by bidding five diamonds, but North signs off at five hearts. (A minimum bid in the agreed suit is discouraging; other bids are encouraging.) South must then give up.

South makes the contract by winning the first club in his own hand. West can ruff a club, but this is the club that South expected to lose in any case. South would go down if he won the first club in dummy, since then West would ruff out the ace of clubs.

DAILY QUESTION: With neither side vulnerable, one opponent bids one heart and the other raises to three hearts. You are next, holding:

♠ Q J 9 7 6 2
♥ A
♦ J 5
♣ Q J 8 3

What do you say?

Answer: Bid three spades. This bid is risky, but a pass may be just as costly. In the actual hand (as shown in the diagram) this leads to a fine sacrifice at four or even five spades.

Teen Easter Dance Set In Corte Madera

A teen-age Easter dance featuring the Chord Lords will be held at Corte Madera Recreation Center tomorrow from 8:30 p.m. until midnight.

Edward S. Margolash, manager, said the dance, sponsored by the five-piece band, will be chaperoned by parents.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, April 20, the 110th day of the year with 255 to follow in 1962. Today is Good Friday.

The moon is full.

The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1902, Marie and Pierre Curie isolated radium salts and determined the atomic weights and properties of radium and polonium.

In 1948, an unidentified assailant shot and seriously wounded Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union.

A thought for the day: Roman orator Cicero said: "He removes the greatest ornament of friendship, who takes away from it respect."

NOTICE OF SALE OF REAL PROPERTY AT PRIVATE SALE
No. 14407
Dept. No. 3

In the Superior Court of the State of California in and for the County of Marin.

In the Matter of the Estate of DELLA EMMA GERBICH, also known as DELLA E. GERBICH and DELLA GERBICH, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that on or before May 15, 1962, the undersigned WILLIAM R. TALLEY, as administrator of the estate of DELLA EMMA GERBICH, also known as DELLA E. GERBICH and DELLA GERBICH, deceased, will sell at private sale to the highest net bidder, subject to confirmation by the above-entitled Superior Court, all the right, title, interest, and estate of the decedent at the time of her death and all the right, title and interest the estate has, by operation of law or otherwise, acquired other than or in addition to that of the decedent at the time of her death, in and to that certain real property located in the Town of Corte Madera, County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

COMMENCING at a point on the Northeasterly line of the State Highway, distant thereon 256.6 feet Northwesterly from the intersection of said Northeasterly line of said State Highway with the Northerly line of Redwood Avenue, which said point of commencement is also the Westerly corner of the Lot conveyed by Emma C. Pixley to McNeely by Deed recorded in Liber 62 of Deeds, page 86; thence from said point of commencement North 57 degrees 40 minutes East 163 feet, more or less, to the Southwesterly line of a 30 foot road alongside of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right of Way; thence North 31° 5' West along said line of said thirty foot road 40.8 feet; thence Southwesterly, in a direct line, 164 feet and 7 inches, more or less, to a point in the said Northeasterly line of said State Highway, 40.8 feet Northwest of the point of commencement; thence Southeasterly, along the Northeasterly line of said State Highway 40.8 feet to the point of commencement.

Subject to: current taxes, covenants, conditions, restrictions, reservations, rights, rights of way and easements of record.

Bids or offers are invited for the property and must be in writing and may be delivered to the administrator at his office, 101 Casa Buena Drive, Corte Madera, California, or may be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court at any time after the first publication of this notice and before the making of the sale.

Terms and conditions of sale: Cash in lawful money of the United States of America; 10% of the amount bid to accompany the offer and the balance to be paid upon confirmation of sale by the Superior Court. Taxes, rents, operating and maintenance expenses, and premiums on insurance acceptable to the purchaser shall be pro-rated as of the date of confirmation of sale. The examination of title, recording of conveyance, and any title insurance policy shall be at the expense of the purchaser or purchasers.

The property herein described is commonly referred to as 70 Corte Madera Avenue, Corte Madera, California.

SINCE 1910

BEAUTIFUL GARDEN, IMMACULATE HOME $23,750
Hours of care have been lavished on this large corner lot—walks, lawn, trees, vines, ornamental shrubs, bulbs and a garden house for plant-starting, for relaxation. Two-bedroom home, central hall plan, nice living room, tile kitchen. San Anselmo, an Allen exclusive.

MINIATURE ESTATE $24,500

ROSS, CLOSE IN $28,000
Quiet tree-shaded street. Older, remodelled home. 3 bedrooms, family room opens out onto swimming pool and terrace. Fireplace. Level, convenient location. An Allen exclusive.

ATTRACTIVE HOME, LARGE ROOMS $33,500
Set back from a quiet street, with a wide sweep of lawn, is this shuttered ranch-style home. Inviting entry, large entrance hall, all large rooms. Homey family-style kitchen, breakfast area, large living room, glass doors to willow-shaded brick terrace. 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, large lot. Allen exclusive, San Anselmo.

MASSIVE CONCRETE FOUNDATION $38,500
The steel re-inforced girder foundation is only one of many exceptional features of this home built by a builder for himself. Metal laths, weatherstripped, low-cost convector heating system; 4 bedrooms, 2½ baths, dining room, workshop, large clean storeroom, 2 fireplaces. Beautifully-landscaped half-acre. Convenient Corte Madera location.

REDWOOD PANELING $49,500
Lumberman-owner has included top paneling in this Esherick-designed home, so situated on its acre location as to take best advantage of the lovely wooded valley view. Outstanding built-in dressing room in master bedroom suite. 3 bedrooms, 2 baths, space for additional room. Three terraces: large swimming pool and patio, entrance garden with oak-shaded azalea bank, terrace off large parking and garage area features two bearing tangerine trees. San Anselmo.

TWO MAGNIFICENT ROSS ACRES $75,000
Knolltop, breath-taking location. Views of valley, mountain; the brick swimming pool terrace, backgrounded by shrubs and trees, includes guest room and bath, dressing rooms; outstanding brick terracing and walks; tall trees shading all. 3 bedrooms, 3 baths; den, game room, separate dining room, breakfast room in kitchen. Protected patio-entrance.

SPLENDID ROSS ESTATE $185,000
One of the last of the magnificent estates. 4 acres (can be subdivided) surround the impressive Wurster-designed home. (It has been said that a 3-story apartment building could be built on the strong concrete foundation) Spacious rooms, ceilings scaled to livable proportions. Living room, ceramic tile-floored dining room and cheery sunroom all look out on prize-winning landscaping, with huge circles of clipped lawn, and an oak-dominated knoll, well-planted. Views, of course, as outstanding as the property. 3 bedrooms, 4 baths, maid's room and bath. Allen exclusive.

KTIM Plans Easter Music

Radio KTIM will present two special Easter programs tomorrow.

From 2:15 to 3:30 p.m., "Olivet to Calvary," an Easter cantata will be played by tape recording as it was presented Good Friday by choirs of the Novato Assn. of Choirs at Marion School in Novato. Director was Ronald Lord and organist, Col. Leonard McCormick.

At 6 p.m., a program of music, devotions and meditations will be sponsored by the Lutheran Men of Marin. Tomorrow's speaker in the concluding program of the Holy Week series will be by Rev. Sig Sandrock, pastor of Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church, Tiburon.

Redistrict Unit Holds Meeting

The Marin County Supervisorial Redistricting Committee held its second general discussion Wednesday night but reached no decision, County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel said.

The committee is awaiting current over registration statistics and research material from University of California, said chairman Broemmel.

The voter information the committee now has is two years old, he said. The committee will meet again May 2.

Unification Election Letter Campaign Is On

A letter writing campaign is under way urging the state board of education to grant an unification election of Tomales High School and seven elementary districts.

A citizen committee of 17 members from the districts, is conducting a campaign to have people from all over the districts write to the state board, and the state senators and assemblymen who might influence the board, said Mrs. John Mitchell of Tomales, committee chairman.

Sales Training

NEW YORK (UPI) — About half the nation's 5 million salespeople are getting part of their sales training from long-playing records, according to Sales & Marketing Executives-International, market management experts.

Chamber In Hub Plans Open House

San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday voted to forego their regular meeting next Thursday in favor of an open house from 3 to 7 p.m. in their new headquarters at 731 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Invitations are being sent to all in the business community and free refreshments will be served.

The directors voted to notify all other Marin chambers of their stand in favor of lights in the roadway instead of construction of arches to switch traffic from one lane to another on the Golden Gate Bridge during rush hours.

Terra Linda Pair Win Dance Contest

Mr. and Mrs. Ebert Jensen of 386 Holly Drive won the senior amateur division of the Imperial Ball Championships at the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton Palace Hotel in San Francisco Sunday.

On Tuesday, they were awarded third place in the Novice of the Year competition at Sweet's Ballroom, Oakland.

Air Base Equestrian Club Being Formed

The organizational meeting of the Hamilton Air Force Base Equestrian Club was held recently in the 78th Fighter Wing conference room.

A committee of 10 was named to formulate rules for operation of the club. It will draw up a constitution and by-laws to be presented at the next meeting, not yet set.

MARIN FILM FARE

Lusty New Western Due Hub Screen

By LES DARD

There are many exciting films around Marin this weekend:

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Hollywood's top western director John Ford comes up with one of his best efforts in recent years in "The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance," opening Sunday.

The story is an ironic fable about the frontier west and its legendary heroes. Jimmy Stewart plays a peace-loving frontiersman who dedicates his life to building the west by lawful methods. In his youth, he was goaded into a shoot-out with a notorious gunman and—ironically—has always been known as "The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance."

But there's a secret about the shooting of Liberty Valance that even Stewart doen't know, guarded always by his friend, quiet, respected rancher John Wayne. Vera Miles plays the woman in both their lives who chooses between them. Lee Marvin creates a picture of massive evil as the title character.

RAFAEL THEATER

"Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" comes thundering onto the Rafael screen Sunday, MGM's sumptuous remake of Vicente Flasco Ibanez' emotional novel about World War I.

The first such film made a star of Rudolph Valentino in 1921. This time Hollywood updates it to World War II and Nazi-occupied Paris, to tell the story of the ravages of war upon a wealthy Argentine family of divided loyalties.

Valentino's stellar role is played by Glenn Ford, playboy-painter-lover who remains neutral until compelled to prove his courage to his French father, Charles Boyer, and Parisian mistress, Ingrid Thulin.

Other big names are Lee J. Cobb, Paul Lukas, Yvette Mimieux and Karl Boehm. There is some magnificent Cinema-Scope Metrocolor photography of a re-created wartime Paris.

SEQUOIA, MOTOR MOVIES

Sophia Loren performs her superlative Oscar-winning role in "Two Women," now showing at Motor Movies and coming Sunday to Mill Valley. Another big Oscar contender, "The Hustler," is co-featured, with Paul Newman in the role many critics felt deserved the best actor award.

Miss Loren plays a widow trying to protect her delicate daughter from the cruelties of war in the collapsing Italy of invasion days. With the girl she flees the Rome bombings, makes her way to the mountain village of her birth. The cameras treat us to a rare look at the mountain folk where Sophia finds momentary respite. But there is no real escape, and mother and child suffer as the world crumbles around them. For adults.

"Hustler" is the story of a pool shark, with Newman in the title role, Piper Laurie as his girl in another Oscar-nomination performance, and Jackie Gleason is the pool champion in still another.

Two exceptional pictures, not to be missed. But again, for adults.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Billy Wilder's riotous comedy triumph, "One, Two, Three," is now showing, a cold war farce with so many gags they overlap.

James Cagney at his funniest plays a Coca Cola executive in West Berlin who thinks Iron Curtain countries are entitled to a pause that refreshes, too. But before he can sign them up a beautiful but feather-brained Coke heiress comes bouncing into town and promptly elopes with a Communist.

Which is not so bad . . . until Jimmy finds out the girl's father—his big boss—is coming over, too. But Cagney's troubles are our delight.

A great double bill for laughs.

LARK THEATER

Held over is the gripping Italian drama, "Rocco and His Brothers," the story of a widowed mother trying to hold her family of boys together in poverty, corruption and violence.

We see the family's trouble through the lives of two brothers, one the sensitive Rocco, the other an older boy who proves no match for city life.

NOVATO THEATER

Doris Day, Rock Hudson and Tony Randall offer a saucy brand of humor in "Lover Come Back," opening Sunday.

The nonsensical plot whirls around New York's Madison Avenue and the advertising rat race. Doris plays a prim, proper account exec and Hudson her rival in another agency.

Their initial meetings provide a world of slapstick. Not much deep thinking, but loads of "adult only" fun.

FAIRFAX THEATER

With us another week is MGM's "King of Kings," the life of Christ told in spectacular terms.

On the one hand, the picture tells the basic story of Jesus and the foundations of Christianity, but its concurrent theme is the militant unrest of the Jewish people in the iron grip of Rome.

In Technicolor - Technirama, the picture treats its subject with reverence and dramatic appeal, with special attention to Jesus' 40 days in the wilderness, the magnificent Sermon on the Mount, Salome's dance, Jesus' trial, the Last Supper and a final sorrowful re-creation of the Crucifixion.

STAR-CROSSED LOVERS—Ingrid Thulin and Glenn Ford play star-crossed lovers in the spectacular remake of the mighty motion picture, "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." The scene, filmed in dazzling technicolor, is laid in war-torn Paris. Ford is a playboy-artist with mixed loyalties. The lovely Miss Thulin is fiercely loyal to France in her hatred for the Nazis. The drama opens Sunday at the Rafael Theater.

Air Patrol Cadets Complete Practice

Marin County Civil Air Patrol cadets competed in a practice search and rescue mission Sunday.

The mission consisted of locating a parachute which had been placed on a hill northeast of Nicasio.

Two aircraft, a Stinson L-5 and a Cessna 172 piloted by Capt. Harry W. Treanor and Chief Warrant Officer Abel DeHaan, both of San Rafael, competed in the search. Cadets from Marin Squadron Four took turns acting as observers aboard the planes. The mission ended shortly before noon when the parachtue was spotted by personnel aboard Treanor's plane.

Muir Woods Kite Day Is Planned

Kite day will be held April 29 by Muir Woods Park Improvement Assn. at the clubhouse at Ridge Avenue off Panoramic Highway, chairman Howard Winn said today.

The annual affair, at which members of the mountain community fly home-made kites, lasts from 11 a.m. to dusk. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments provided for children. Families take picnic lunches.

In conjunction with kite day will be earwig bait distribution.

The association will hold its regular meeting at 8 p.m. today in the clubhouse. Dinner will be served from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Keys At Conference

Elizabeth J. Coyle, program supervisor for Marin County Welfare Department, and Dr. Edward V. Stein, dean of students at San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo, will be key participants at the four-day California Conference on Health, Welfare and Recreation opening April 29 in Oakland.

Our Next Governor A Hamburger!

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—If the food faddists are right, and "you are what you eat," then the next governor of California will be made of simple things like hamburger, milk and eggs.

At least, that's what he'll be made of if the next governor is Democratic incumbent Edmund G. Brown, or former Vice President Richard Nixon, or Republican Assemblyman Joseph C. Shell.

When asked how they stay in condition for their gruelling campaigns, the three contenders said they diet on simple, wholesome foods. Nixon and Shell mentioned milk and hamburger; Brown, in passing, spoke of eggs.

Dieting is about the only concession that Nixon and Brown make to the physical rigors of the campaign. Neither man does calisthenics and both said that constant traveling, speech-making, and handshaking leave little time for the golf that they otherwise enjoy.

Shell is different. A former football star at University of Southern California, he continued the 10 minutes of morning and bedtime sitting up exercises that he began years ago.

At age 43 and weight 205 pounds, he can do 40 to 50 pushups.

Nixon adopts what he calls "a Spartan diet" while campaigning because "I feel better when I stay away from rich foods." This creates a problem, however, because he wants to maintain his 170-pound body weight. And, he believes, his "Spartan diet" might not provide sufficient nourishment.

Nixon solves the problem by eating his biggest meal of the day just before going to bed, usually between 10 p.m. and midnight.

Brown's dieting began concurrently with his re-election campaign but actually had its start on doctor's orders. The governor, who will be 57 April 21, suffered a dizzy spell while delivering a speech last Nov. 4 and he was ordered to cut 20 pounds from his then 204 pound weight.

Brown dropped to 184 by giving up salt, starchy foods, cocktails and dessert.

Tam District Is Split For Study Purposes

Tamalpais High School District will be split into two areas for study by the Marin County Committee on School District Organization for a master plan for unification of Marin's school districts.

The committee decided on the division at a meeting Wednesday night, reported Edwin L. Blackmore of the county superintendent's office, assistant secretary.

The first area is composed of Nicasio, Lagunitas, Fairfax, San Anselmo, Ross, Kentfield, Larkspur and Reed Union, Elementary School Districts, Blackmore said. He said that an augmented committee meeting would be held to discuss the area on May 16.

The second area is comprised of Mill Valley, Sausalito and Bolinas-Stinson elementary school districts. Blackwell said an augmented committee meeting to discuss this area would be held on June 4.

Each school board member is automatically a member of the augmented committee, with each district having one vote on the committee.

The last study of the Tamalpais High School District by the committee was made in 1958. At that time the committee considered the district as a whole rather than dividing it into study areas.

Suspect Arrested In San Rafael On Check Fraud

Richard Allen Williams, alias Theodore Dunkin, was arrested for Yuba County authorities as he was eating a midnight meal early yesterday in a San Rafael restaurant.

Asst. Chief Sam N. Serio of San Anselmo police, who made the arrest, said Williams is charged by Yuba County with obtaining money under false pretenses. He is also wanted by the Marysville Police Department for investigation of fictitious checks, and may be sought in the east, Serio said.

Serio impounded Williams's car, which he said was purchased in Marysville under the false name of Theodore Dunkin. He said Williams was five payments behind on the car.

Williams, an ex-convict who sometimes works as a bartender and cook, had taken a room at the Travelers Hotel in San Rafael, Serio reported. He was jailed "en route to Yuba County."
